The PREFACE

 To the Unprejudiced $\boldsymbol{R}_{\text {EADER }}$ S the fall of man made himself and all other creatures fubject to vanity, fo, by reaform thereof, the moft noble and excellent Arts wherewith the Rational foul mas indued, are by the rufty canker of Time brought unto Corruption. For Magick it Self. which the ancients did fo divinely contemplate; is fcandalized with bearing the badge of all diabolical forceries:which Art ( aith Mirandula) Pauci intelligunt, multi reprehendunt, \& ficut canes ignoros femper allarrant: Few underftand, many reprebend; and as dogs barke at thofe they know not: fo do many condemne and bate the things they underftand not. Many men there are, that abbor the very name and word Magus, becaufe of Simon Magus, whobeing indeed not Magus, but Goes, that is, familiar with evil Spirits,ufurped that Title. But Magick and witcheraft are far differing Sciences; whereof Pliny being ignor ant, fcoffeth thereat: for Nero ( (Jaih Pliny) who bad the moft excellent Magicians of the Eaft fent him by Tyridates king of Armenia, whobeldthat kingdom by bim, found the Art after long fudy and labour altogether ridiculous. Now witchraft and Sorcery are workes done meerely by the devill; which with refpeq unto fame covenant made with man, be acteth by men his int fruments, to accomplifb bis evil ends: of these, the biftories of all ages, people and countries, as alfo the boly Scriptares, affordus fundry examples.

divine, and as Plato affirmeth, the art of, Magide is the art of morfloipping God: and the Perfians called ther gods maxis. bence Apollonius faith, that Magus is cither : kaxa quiviveios or vecerivins : ourv, that is, that Magus is a name fornetime of bim that is a god by hature, ana Somtimes of bim that is in the fervice of God: in which laiter fence it is taken Matth.2. 1,2. when the mife-men came to wor $\int$ bip Fefus; and this is the firft and bigheft kindes, which is called divine Magick; and thefe the Latines did intitle Sa pientes, or wife-men; for the fear and wor foip of God is the beginning of knowledge. The fe wife-men the Greeks call Philofophers; and amongft the Egyptians they were termed Priefts: The Hebrews termed them CabaliAtos, Prophets; Scribes and Pharifces; and among pt the Bdbylonians they were differenced by the siame of Caldeans, andby the Perfians called Magicians : and one Jpeaking of Solthenes, oke of the ancient Magicians, ufetb thefe words: Et verum Deum merita majeftate profequitur, \& angelos miniftros Dei, fed veri ejus venerationi novit affiftere; idem dæmonas prodit terrenos, vagos, humanitatis inimicos: Solthenes afcribeth the due Majefty to the true God, and acknomledgeth that bis Angels are minifters and meffengers which attend the word' Ship of the true God; be alfo bath delivered, that there are devils earthly and wandering, and enemies to mankind.

So that the noord Magus of it Self imports a Contemplator of divine and beavenly Sciences; but under the name of Magick, are all unlangul Arts comprebended; as Necromancy asd Witchraft, and such Ares which are effected by combination with the devil, and whereof be is a party.
Thefewitches and Necromancers are alfo called Mslefici or Venefici; Sorcerers or poifoners; of wbich zame Witches are rightly called, who withous the Axt of llagick

The Premace

Wlo indeed use the belp of the dervill himfelf to do mijchief; praciling to mix the ponder of dead bodies with other things by the belp of the devill prepared; and at other times to make Pittures of max, clay; or otherwife (as it were, Sacramentaliter) to effect thofe things whicl the devil by other means bringeth to pafs. Such were, and to this day partly, if not altogether, axe the corruptions that have made odiows the very name of Magick, baving cbriefly fought, as the manner of all Impogfures is, to counterfeit the bighefo and mof noble part of it.

A Second kinde of Magick is Afrologies, which judgeth of the events of things to come, natural and bumane, by the motions and influences of the Stars upon the ee lower elelements, by them observ'd and underfood.

Philo Judxus affirmeth, that by this part of Magick or Aftrologie, together with the mot ions of the Stars and 0 ther heaverily bodies, Abraham found out the knowledge of the true God wobile be lived in Caldea, Qui Contemplatione Creaturarum, cognovit Crearorem ( (aith Damafcen) who knew the Creator by the contemplation of the creature. Jofephus reporteth of Abraham, that be infructed the Egyptians in Aritbmetick and Afronomy; whobefore Abraham's coming unto them, knew none of the fe Sciences.

Abraham fanctitate & fapientia omnium preflantiffimus, primum Caldxos, deinde Phonices, demum Egyptios Sacerdotes, Aftrologia & Divina docuerit. Abraham the bolieft andwifeft of men, did firft teach the Caldeans, then the Pbonicians, laftly the Egyptian Priefts, Aftrologie and divine knomledge.

Without doubt, Hermes Trifmegiftus, that divive Magician and Philofopher, who (as fome fay) lived long before Noah, attained to much divise knopledge of the

The Preface

Creator through the fudy of Magick and Aftrologie; as bis writings, to this day extant among us, teftijie.

The third kinde of Magick containetb the whole PbiloSophy of Natureswhich bringeth to light the inmoft vertues, and extracteth them out of Natures bidden bofome to bumane $u f_{6}$ : Virtutes in centro centri latentes; Vertues bidden in the centre of the Centre, according to the Chymifts:of th is fort weere Albertus, Arnoldus de Villa nova, Raymond, Bacon, and others, &rc.

The Magick thefe men profe $\beta^{\prime} d$, is thus defined: Magia eft connexio à viro fapiente agentium per naturam cum patientibus, fibi, congruenter tefpondentibus, ut inde opera prodeant, non fine corum admiratione qui caufam ignorant. Magick is the conkexion of natural agents and patients, anfwerable each to other, wrought by a wife man, to the bringing forth of Such effects as are noonderful to tho $\int_{8}$ that know not their caufes.

In all thefe, Zoroafter was well learned, efpecially in the firft and the bigheft: for is his Oracles he confelfeth God to be the firft and the bigheft; be believeth theTrinity, which be would not invefigate by any natural knowledge: be Speaketh of Angels, and of Paradife; approveth the immortality of the foul; teacheth Truth, Faith, Hope, and Love; difcourfing of the abfinence and charity of the Magi.

Of this Zoroafter, Eufebius in the Theologie of the Pboenicians,ufing Zoroafter's own words: Hæc ad verbum fcribit ( $\int$ aith Eufebius) Deus primus, incorruptibilium, fempiternus, ingenitus, expers partium, fibiipfi fimillimus, bonorum omnium auriga, munera non expectans, optimus, prudentiffimus, parer juris, fine doarina juftitiam perdoctus, natura perfectus, fapiens, facre naturæ unicus inventor, ec. Thus faith Zoroafter, word for mord: God the firft, incorruptible, everlafting, unbegotten, without parts, moft like bimjelf, the guide of all good, expecting no reward, the beft, the wifeft, the fatber of right, having learned juftice without teaching, perfect, wife by nature, and onely inventor thereof.

The Paeface

So that a Magician is no other but divinorum cultor 8 interpres, a tudious obferver and expounder of divize things; and the Artitself is none other quam Naturalis Philofophix abfoluta confummatio, then the absolute perfection of Natural Pbilofophy. Neverthelefs there is a mixture in all things, of good with evil, of fallbood with truth, of corruption with purity. The good, the truth, the purity in every kinde, may poll be embraced: As in the anciest wor fbipping of God by Sacrifice, there was no man knowing God among the Elders, that did forbeare to worShip the God of all power, or condemn that kinde of wor Jhip, besaule the devil was fo adored in the Image of $\mathrm{Baal}, \mathrm{Da}$ gon, Aftaroth, Chemorh, Jupiter, Apollo, and the like.

Neither did the abuse of Aftrologie terrifie Abraham, (if me believe the moft ancient and religious writers) from obferving the motions and natures of the beavenly bodies. Neither can it dehort wife and learnedmen in the fe days from attributing thofe vertues, influences, and inclinations, to the flars and other Lights of beaven, which God bath given to thofe bis glorious creatures.

I muft expect Some calumnies and obtrectations againft this, from the malicious prejudiced man, and the lazie affeters of Ignorance, of whom this age $\int$ warmes: but the voice and Sound of the Snake and the Goofe, is all one. But our ftomacks are not now so queazie and tender? after $\int 0$.

Henry Cornelius Agrippa,

 of Geomancy. Eomancyisan Art of Divination, whereby the judgment may be rendred by lot, or deftiny, to every cueftion of every thing whatfoever: but the Art hereof confifteth efpecially in certain points, whereof certain figures are deducted according to the reafon or rule of equality or inequality, likeneffe or unlikeneffe; which Figures ave alfor reduced to the Coleftiall Figures, affuming their natures and proprieties, according to the courfe and forms of the signes & Planets. Notwithftanding this in the firft place we are to confider, that this kinde of Art can declare or thew forth nothing of verity, unlefs it fhall be radicall in fome fublime vertue; and this the Authours of this Science have demonfrated to be two-fold : the one wherem of conlifts in Religionand Ceremonies; and therefore chey will have the Projecting of the points of this Art to be made with fignes in the Earth: wherefore the Art is appropriated to this Element of Earth, even as Pyromancy to the fire, and Hydromancy to the Element of Water: Then whereas they judged the hand of the Projector or Worker to be moft powerfully moved, and directed to the rerreftriall firits; and therefore they firft ufed certain holy incantations and deprecations, with other rite and obfervations, provoking and alluring firits of this nature hereunto.

Another power there is that doth direct and rule this Lot or Fortune, which is in the very foule it felf of the Projector, when he is carried to this work with fome great egreffe of his owne defire : for this Art hath a naturall obedience to the foul it felf, and of neceflity hath efficacy and is moved to that which the foul it felf defires; and this way is by far more true and pure : neither mattersit where or how thefe points are projected : therefore this Art hath the fame Radix with the Art of Aftrologicall Queftions: which alfo can no otherwife be verified, unleffe with a conftant and exceffive affection of the Qierent himfelfo Now then that we may proceed to the Praxis of this Art; firlt it is to be knowne, that all Figures upon which this whole Art is founded are onely fixteen, as in this following Table you thall fee noted, with their names.

of Geomancy.

Now we proceed to declare with what Planets thefe Figures are diftributed; for hereupon all the propriety and nature of Figures, and the judgement of the whole Art dependeth: Therefore the greater and leffer Fortune are alcribed to the Sun; but the firfor or greater Fortune is when the Sun is diurnal, and pofited in his dignities; the other, or leffer Fortune, is when the Sun is nocturnall, or placed in leffe dignities. Via, and Populus(that is, the Way, and People) are referred to the Moon; the firt from her begining and enci ealing, the fecond from her full light and quarter decreafing. Acquiftrio, and Latitia (which is Gain, Profit ; Joy and Gladnefs)are of fupitcr : But the firft hath fupiter the greater Fortune, the fecoad the leffe, but without detriment. Puella & Amifforare of Venus ; the firlt fortunate, the other (as it were) retrograde, or combuff. Conjuncito & Albus are both Figures of Mercury, & are both good; but the finft the more Fortunate. Puer & R. Thbeus are Figures afcribed to Mars; the firft whereof hath Mü̈s benevolent, the fecond malevolent. Carcer & Trititia ate both Figures of Sa. $t u r n$, & both evil ; but the firft of the greater detriment. The Dragons head and Dragons tayl do follow their own natures.
And thefe are the infallible comparions of the Figures, and from thefe we may eafily difcern the equality of their fignes; therefore the greater and leffer Fortunes have the figne of Leo, which is the Houfe of the Sun: Via \& Populus trave the figne of Cancer, which is the Houfe of the Moon: Acquijtio hath for his figne Piges; \& Letitia Sagittary, which are both the Houres of Fripiter: Puella hath the figne of Taurus, and Ami $\sqrt{\text { Io }}$ of Libra, which are the Houles of Venus: Conjunctio hath for its figne Virgo,\&\& Albus the figne Gemini, the Houles of Mercury : Puella and Rubeus have for their figne Scorpio, the Houfe of CMars: Carcer hath the figne Capricorn,\& Trititio eAquary, the Houfes of Saturn: The Dragons head and tail are thus divided, the head to Capricern, and the Dragons tail adhereth to Scorpio ; and from hence you may eafily obasain the Triplicities of thefe fignes, after the manner of the Triplicities of the figues of the Zodiack : Puer therefore, both Fortunes, \& Letitia, do govern the fiery Triplicity ; Pxella, Conjunnilio, Garcer, and che Dragons head, the earthly Triplicity: Albus, Amiffo, \& Triftitia, do make the Airy Triplicity: \& Via, Populus, \& R R ubeus, with the Dragonstail, \& Acquifitio, do rule the watry Tripliciry; \& this order is taken according to the courfe or manner of the fignes.

But if any will conftitute thefe Tripicities according to the natures of the Planets, aid Figures themfelves, lat him obferve this Rule, that Fortuna major, Rubeus, Puer, and Ami $\int(10$, do make the fiery Triplicity: Fortuna minor, Prilla, Latitia, and Conjunciin, the Triplicity of the Ayr: Acquifitio, the Dragons tail :Via, \& rpopulus, do governthe watry Triplicity $s$ and the earthly Triplicity is ruled vy Carcer, Triftitia, Albus, and the Dragons head. And this way is rather to be obferved then the fritt which we have fet forth; becaufe it is conflituted according to the Rule andmanner of the fignes.

This order is alfo far more true and rational then that which vulgarly is ufed, which is deferibed after this manner: of the Fiery Triplicicy are, C auda, Fortuna minor, $A m i j f o$, and $R$ ubewh: of the Airy Triplicity are, Acquifitio Letitiz, Puer, and Conjunctio: of the watry Triplicity are, Popalus, Via, Albus, Pwella: And Caput, Fortuna major, Carcer, and Triftitia, are of the earthly Triplicity.

They do likewife diftribute there figures to the twelve Gignes of the Zodiack, after this manner; Acquifitio is given to Aries; Fortuna, both major and minor to Taurus; Latitia to the figne Gemini ; Puella and Rubeus to Caxcer ; Albus is affigned to Leo, Via to Virgo; the Dragons head, and Conjumctio to Libra; Puer is fubmitted to Scorpio; Triffitia and Aniffo are affigned to Sagitsary; the Dragons tail to C apricorn; Populus to Aquarius; and Carcer is altigned to the figne Fifces.

And now we come to fpeak of the manner of projecting or fetting down there figures, which is thus; that we fet down the points according to their courfe in four lines, from the righie hand toward the left & this in four courfes: There will therefore refult unto us four Figures made in four feveral lines, according to the evea or uneven maihing every feveral line; which four Figures are wont tro he calle. Matres: which do bring forth the reft, filling up and compleating the whole Fi-

Of thefe four Matres are alfo produced four other fecon－ dary Figures，which they call Filie，or fuccedents，which are gathered together after this manner，that is to fay，by making the four Matres according to their order，placing them by courfe one ofter another＊＊then that which fhall refult out of every line，maketh the Figure of Filic，the order whereof is by defcending from che fuperior points through both medie sums to the loweft ：as in this example．

After the fame manner there are produced out of the laft four Figures, that is to fay, of the ninth, tenth, eleventh, & twelfth, two Figures, which they call Coadjutrices, or Teffes; out of which two is alfo one contio tuted, which is called the Index of the whole Figure, or thing. A Theme of Geomancie.

of Geomancy.

And this which we have declared is the common manner obferved by Geomancers, which we do not altogether reject, neither extoll; therefore this is alfo to be confidered in our judgements: Now thereforel thall give unto you the true Figure of Geomancy, according to the right conftitution of Afrologicall reafon, which is thus.

As the former Masres doe make the four Angles of an Houfe, the firt maketh the firft Angle, the fecond the fecond Angle, the chird maketh the third Augle, and the fourth the fourth Angle; fo the four Filia arifing from the Mătres, do conftitute the four fuccedent Houfes; the firf maketh the fesond Houfe, the fecond the eleventh, the third the eighth, and the fourth maketh the firt Houre:the reft of the Houfes, which are Cadents, are to be calculated according to the Kule of their Triplicity; that is to fay, by making the niath out of the fourth and fifth, and the fixth out of the tenth and fecond, of the feventhand eleventh the third, and of the fourth and eighth the twelfth.

And now you have the whole Figure of true judgement conftituted according to true and efficacious reafons, whereby If hall thew how you thall compleat it : the Figure which flrall be in the firtt Houre fhall give you the figne afcending, which the firlt Figure fheweth; which being done, you thall attribute their fignes to the reft of their Houfes, according to the order of the fignes: then in every Houre you thall note the Planets. according to the nature of the Figure : then fromall thefe you thall build your judgement according to the fignification of the Planets in the fignes and Houfes wherein they thall he found, and according to their a pects among themfelves, and to the place of the querent and thing quefited; and you fhall judge according to the natures of the fignes afcending in their Houfes, and according to the natures and proprieties of the Figures which they have placed in the feverall Houfes, and according to the commifture of other Figures afpecting them: The Index of the Figure which the Geomancers for the moft part have made, how it is found in the former Figure.

But here we fhall give you the fecret of the whole Art, to finde out the Index in the fublequent Figure, which is thus: that you number all the points which are contained in the lines of the proietions, and this you thall divide by twelve: and that which remaineth projeet from the Afcendent by the feveral Houfes, and upon which Houfe there fallech a final unity, that Figure giveth you a comperent Judgement of the thing quefited; and this together with the fignifications of the Judgements aforefaid. But if on either part they fhall be equal, or ambiguous, then the Index alone fhall certifie you of the thing quefited. The Example of this Figure is here placed,

It remaineth now, that we declare, of what thing and to what hourea Quefion doth appertain. Then, what every Figure doth thew or fignifie concerning all Queftions in every Houle.

of Geomancy.

Firt therefore we thall handle the Gignifications of the Houres ; which are thefe.

The firt Houfe fheweth the perfon of the Querent, as often as a Queftion thall be propofed concerning himfelf, of his own matters, or any thing appertaining to him. And this Houfe declareth the Judgement of the life, form, ftate, condition, habit, difpofition, form and figure, and of the colour of men. The fecond Houfe containeth the Judgement of fubftance, riches, poverty, gain and lofs, good formene and evil fortune : and of accidents in fubitance; as theft, lofs or negligence. The third Houle fignifieth brethren, fifters, and Collaterals in blood: It judgech of fmall journeys, and fidelities of men. The fourth Houfe fignifies fathers and grandfathers, patrimony and inheritance, poffeffions, huildings, fields, treafure, and things hidden : Jt giveth alfo the defcription of thofe who want any thing by theft, lofing, or negligence. The fifth Houfe giveth judgement of Legats, Meffengers, Rumours, News ; of Honour, and of accidents after death: and of Queftions that may be propounded concerning women with childe, or creatures pregnant. The fixth Houfe giveth Judgement of infirmities, and medicines ; of familiars and fervants ; of cattel and dometick animals. The feventh Honfe fignifies wedlock, whoredom, and fornication; rendreth Judgement of friends, frifes, and controverfies; and of matters aited before Judges. The eighth hath fignification of death, and of thore things which come by death of Legats, and Hereditaments; of the dowry or portion of a wife. The ninth Houfe thewech journeys, faith, and conftancy; dreams, divine Sciences, and Religion. The tenth houre hath fignification of Honours, and of Magifterial Offices. The eleventh Houre fignifies friends, & the fubftance of Princes. The twelf th Houre fignifies enemies, fervants, imprifonment, and misfortune, and whatfoever evil can happen befides death and ficknefs, the Judgements whereof are to be required in the fixth Houfe, and in the eighth.

It refts now, that we thew you what every figure before foo ken of fignifieth in there places 3 which we thall now unfold.

nifieth a man fhall have many wives; multiplies and firreth up many adveriaries and fuits. In the eighth Houre he fheweth the death to be certain, increafeth legacies and inheritances, and giveth a good portion with a wife. In the ninth Houfe Caput Dracons fignifies many journeys, many Sciences, and good Religion ; and fheweth that thofe that are abfent thall foon return. In the tenth Houre he fignifies glorious Princes, great and magnificent Judges, great Offices, and gainful Magiftracy. In the eleventh Houfe he caufeth many friends, and to be beloved of allmen. In the twelfth Houfe Caput Draconis fignifieth men to have many enemies, and many women; detaineth the imprifoned, and evilly punifheth them.

Cauda Draconis, in all and Gingular the refpected Houfe; a- Dragons forefaid, giveth the contrary judgement to Caput. And there tail. are the natures of the figures of Geomancy, and their judgments, in all and fingular their Houfes, upon all manner of Queftions to be propounded, of or concerning any matcer or thing whatfoever.
But now in the manner of proceeding to judgement, this you are efpecially to obferve; that whenfoever any Queftion fhall be propored to you, which is contained in any of the Houles, that you hall not onely anfwer thereunto by the figure contained in fuch a Houfe; but beholding and diligently refpecting all the figures, and the Index it felf in two Houres, you thall ground the face of judgement. You thall therefore confider the figure of the thing quefited or enquired after, if he thall multiply himelf by the other places of the figure, that you may caufe them alfo to be partakers in yoar judgement : as for example, if a Queftion thall be propounded of the fecond Houle concerning a theef, and the figure of the fecond Houre thall be found in the fixth, it declares the theef to be fome of ones own houlhold or fervants: and after this manner thall you judge and confider of the reft ; for this whole Art confittech in the Commixtures of the figures, and the natures thereof ; which whofoever doth rightly practice, he fhall alwaies declare moft erue and"certain judgements upon every pareticular thing whatfoever.

Written by Henry Cornelius Agrippa.

N our Books of Occult Philofophy, we have not fo compendioufly, as copioufly, declared the principles, grounds, and reafons of Magick it felf, and after what manier the experiments thereof are to be chofen, elected, and compounded, to produce many wonderful effects: but becaufe in thofe books they are treated of, rather Theorically, then Praftically; and fome sifo are not handled compleatly and fully, and others very figuratively, and as it were Enigmatically and obfcure Riddles, as being thofe which we have obtained unto with great ftudy, diligence, and very curious fearching and exploration, and are heretofore fet forth in a more rude and unfafhioned maner: Therefore in this book, which we have compored and made ${ }_{23}$ it weres Complement and Key of our other books of $\mathrm{O}_{\mathrm{c}}$. cult Philofophy, and of all Magical Operations, we will give unto thee the documents of holy and undefiled verity, and Inexpugnable and Uimefiftable Magical Difcipline; and the mon plea fant and delectable experiments of the facred Deities. So that as by the reading of our other books of Occult Philofophy, thou mayeft earnefly covet the knowledge of there things; even fo with reading this book, thou Male truly triumph. Wherefore let filence hide thefe things within the fecret clofets of thy religious breft, and conceal them with confant Taciturnity.

This therefore is to be known, That the names of the in--telligent prefiderts of every one of the Planets are confticuted after this maner: that is to fay, By collecting together the letters out of the figure of the world, from the rifing of the body of the planet, according to the fucceffion of the Signes through the feveral degrees; and out of the feveral degrees, from the afpects of the Planet himfelf, the calculation being madefrom the degree of the sfcendant. In the like maner are conflituted the names of the Princes of the evil firits; they are taken under all the Planets of the prefidentsin a retrograde order, the projection being made coatrary to the fucceffion of the fignes, from the beginning of the feventh Houfe. Now the name of the fupreme and higheft Intelitigence, which nany do fuppofe to be the foul of the world, iscollected out of the four Cardinal points of the figure of the world, after the maner already delivered: and by the oppofite and contrary way, is known the name of the great $D_{\text {amon, }}$, or evil pirit, upon the four cadent angles: In the like manner fhalt thou underftand the names of the great prefidential (pirits, ruling in the Air, from the four Angles of the fuccedent. Houles: مo chat as to obtain the names of the good firits, the calculation is to be made according to the fucceffion of the fignes, beginning from the degree of the afcendent; and to attain to the namea of the evil rpirits, by working the contrary way.

You muft alfo obferve, that the names of the evil fpirits dre extratied, afwel from the names of the good firits, as of the evil: $\{0$ notwithßanding; that if we enter the table: with the name of a good fpirit of the fecond order, the name of the evil firit fhall be extracted from the order of the Princes and Governours; but if we enter the table with the name of a good fpirit of the third order, or with thename of anevil firit a Governour, after what manner foever they are extracted, whether by this table, or from a celefial. figure, the names which do proceed from hence, thall be the: names of the evil [pirits, the Minifters of the inferiour order.

Of Occult Pbilofophy,

It is further to be noted, That as often as we enter thig. table with the good fpirits of the fecond order, the names extracted are of the fecond order: and if under them we extrat the name of an evil firit, he is of the fuperiour order of the Governours. The fame order is, if we enter with the name of an evil Spirit of the fuperiour order. If therefore:we enter this table with the names of the firits of the third order, or with the names of the miniftring firits, afwell of the good fpirits, as of the evil, the names extracted thall be the names of the miniftring fpirits of the inferiour order.

But many Magicians, men of no fmall authority, will have the tables of this kinde to be extended with Latine letters: fo that by the fame tables alfo, out of the name of any office. or effect, might be found out the name of any fpirit, afwel good as evil, by the fame maner which is above delivered, by taking the name of the office or of the effect in the column of letters, in their own line, under their own ftar. And of this practice - Trifmegiftus is a great Author, who delivered this kinde of calculation in Egyptian letters: not unproperly. alfo may they be referred to other letters of other tongues, for the reafons affigned to the fignes; for truly he onely is extant of all men who have treated concerning the attaining to the names of firits.

Therefore the force, fecrecy and power, in what maner the facred names of firitis are truly and rightly found out, confifteth in the difpofing of vowels, which do make the name of a firit, and wherewith is conftituted the true name, and right word. Now this art is thus perfected and brought to pafs: firf, we are to take heed of placing the vowels of the letters, which are found by the calcutation of the celeftial figure, to finde the names of the fpirits of the fecond order, Prefidents and Governours. And this in the good fpirits, is chus brought to effect, by confidering the ftars which do contitute and make the letters, and by placing them according to their order: firf let the degree of the eleventh Houle be fubitracted from the degree of that ftar which is firtt in order; and that which remaineth thereof, let it be projected from the degree of the afcendant; and where that number endeth, there is part of the vowel of the firt letter: begin therefore to calculate the vowels of thefe letters, according to their number and order; and the vowel which falleth in the place of the far, which is the firft in order, the fame vowel is attributed to the firt letter. Then afterwards thou fhalt finde the part of the fecond letter, by fubftrating the degree of a ftar, which is the fecond in order from the firft ftar; and that which remaineth, caft from the afcendant. And this is she fart from which thou thalt begin the calculation of the vowels; and that vowel which falleth upon the fecond ftar, the fame is the vowel of the fecond letter: and fo confequently maift thou fearch out the vowels of the following letters alwayes, by fubtracting the degree of the following ftar, from the degree of the ftar next preceding and going before. And fualfo all ca!culations and numerations in the names of the good firits, ought to be made according to the fucceffion of the fignes. And in calculating the names of the evil fpirits, where in the names of the good firits is taken the degree of the eleventh Houre, in thefe ought to be taken the degree of the twelfth Houfe. And all numerations and calculations may be made with the fucceffion of the fignes, by taking the beginning from the degree of the tenth Houre.

But in all extractions by tables, the vowels are placed after another maner. In the firft place therefore is taken the certain number of letters making the name it felfe, and is thus numbred from the beginning of the columne of the firt letter, or whereupon the name is extrated; and the letter on which this number falleth, is referred to che firttetter of the name, extratted by taking the diflance of the one from the other, according to the order of the Alphabet. But the number of that diitance is projected from the beginning of his columne; and where it endeth, there is part of the firf vowel: from thence therefore thou fhalt calculate the vowels thenselves, in their own number and order, in the fame column; and the vowel which fhall fall upon the firft fetter of a name, the fame thall be attributed to that namie. Now thon fhalt finde the following vowels, by taking the diffance from the precedent vowel to the following : and fo confeguently according to the fucceffion of the Alphabet. And the number of that diftance is to be numbred from the beginning of his own column; and where he fhall ceafe, there is the part of the vowel foughtafter. From thence therefore mult yon calculate the vowels, as we have abovefaid; and thofe vowels which fhall fall upon their own letters, are to be attributed unto them : if the efore any vowil fhall happen to fall upon'a vowel, the former muft give place to the latter : and this you are to underftnd only of the good firits. In the evil alfo you may proceed in the fame way; except only, that you make che numerations after a contrary and backward order, contrary to the fucceflion of the Alphabet, and contrary to the order of the columnes (that is to fay) inarcending.

The name of good Angels, and of every man, which we have taught how to finde out, in our third Book of Occult Philofophy, according to that manner, is of no little authority, nor of a meane foundation. But now we will give unto thee fome other ways, illuftrated with no vain reafons. One whereof is, by taking in the figure of the nativity, the five places of Hylech: which being noted, the characters of cheletters are projected in sheir order and number from the beginning of Aifies; and thofeletters which fall upan che degrees of the faid places, according to their order and dignity difpofed and afpeeted, do make the name of an Angel. There is allo another way, wherein they do take Alnutel, which is the ruling and governing flars over the aforefaid five places; and the projection is to be made from the degree of the afcendant; which is done by gathering together the letters falling upon Almutel : which being placed in order, according to their dignity, do make che name of an Angel. There is furthermore another way ufed, and very much had in oblervation from the Egyptians, by making their calculation from the degre of the afcendant, and by gathering together the letters according to the Almutel of the eleventh Houre; which Houfe they call a good Damon: which being placed according to their dignities, the names of the Angels are contlitured. Now the names of the evil Angels are known after the like manner, except only that the projections mult be performed contrary to the courfe and order of the fuccelfion of the fignes: fo that whereas in feeking the names of good fpirits, we are te calculate from the beginning of Aries; contrariwife, in attaining the names of the evil, we ought to account from the beginning of Libra. And whereas in the good fpirits we number from the degree of the afcendant; contrarily, in the evil, we mult calculate from the degree of the feventh Houre. But according to the Egyptians, the name of an Angel is collected according to the Almutel of the twelfoh Houfe which they call an evill fpirit. Now all thofe rites, which are elfewhere already by us delivered in our third book of Occult Philofophy, may be made by the characters of any language. In all which (as we have aboveraid) there is a myltical and divine number, order an figure; from whence it cometh to pafs, that the fame Spirit may be called by divers names. But others' are difcovered from the name of the fpirit himfelf, of the good or evil, by tables formed to this purpofe.Now chefe celeftial characters do confit of lines and heads: the heads are fix, according to the fix magnitudes of the ftars, whereunto the planets alio are reduced. The firt magnitude holdeth a Star, with the Suns or a Crofs. The fecond wirh Jupiter a circular point. The third holdeth with Saturnesa femicircleja criangleseither crooked, round or acute.

But the Characters which are extracted according to the name of a fpirit, are compofed by the table following, by giving to every letter that name which agreeth unto him, out of the table; which although it may appear eafie to thole that apprehend it, yet there is herein no imall difficulty ; To wit, when the letter of a name falleth upon the line of letters or figures, that we may know, which figure of which letrer is to be taken. And this may be thus known : for if a lecter falleth upan the line of letters, confider of what number this letter may be in the order of the name; as the fecond or the chird : then how many letters that name containeth; as five or feven; and multiply chefe numbers one after another by themfel ves, and creble the product: then calt the whole (being added together) from the beginning of the letters according to the fucceffion of the Alphaber: and the letrer upon which that number fhall happen co fall, ought to be placed for the character of that fpirit. But if any letter of a name fall on the line of figures, it is thus to be wrought. Take the number how many this lerter is in the order of the name, and let it be multiplied by the number of whichechis letter is in the order of the Alphabet; and being added together, divide it by nine, and the remainder thewerh the figure or number to be placed in the character and this may be put either in a Geomerrical or Arithmetical figure of number; which notwithfanding oughe not to exceed the number of nine, or nine Angels.

Of Qccnlt Philofophy,

F But che Chasacters which are underfood by the revelation of Spirits, take their vertue from thence; becaufe they are asit were, certain hidden feals, making the harmony of fome divinity : cither they are fignes of a Covenant entred into, and of promifed and plighted faich, or of obedience. And thofe Charácters cannot by any other meanes be fearched out.

Moreover, befides thefe Characters, there are certain familiar Figures and Images of evil Spirits, under which forms they are wont to appear, and yeild obedience to them thatinvoke them. And all thefe Characters or Images may be feen by the table following, according to the courfe of the letrers conftituting the names of Spirits themfelves: ©o that ifin any letter there is found more then the pame of one Spirit, bis Image holdeth the pre-eminencers the others imparting their own order; fo that they which are the firlt orders, to them is attributed the head, the upper patcof the body, according to their own figute: thofe which are the loweft, do poffers the thighs and feer; fo allo the middle letters do ageribure like to themen es the midde parts of the body, to give the parts that fit. But if there happer any contrariety, thac letrer which is the Aronger in the mumber fhall bear mule:- and if theyare equal, they will impart equal things. Furthermore, if any name foal obtain any notablẹ Chiaracter or Infturnent out of the Table, he Qhall likewife hawe the fame charatter in the Image.

But we now come to freak of the holy and facred Pentacles and Sigils. Now thefe Pentacles are as ic were certain holy fignes preferving us from evil chances and events, and helping and affiting us to binde, exter minate, and drive away evil firits, and alluring the good fpitits, and recoriciling them unto us. And there Pentacies do conlift èither of Characters of the good fpirits of the fuperiour order, or of facred pictures of holy letters or revelations, with apt and fit verficles, which are compo fed either of Geometrical figures and holy hames of God, according to the courfe and manner of many of them; or they are compounded of all of them ; or very many of then mixt. And the Characters which are ufeful for us to conftitute and make the pentacles, they are the Characters of the good Spirits, ew fpecially and chiefly of the good fpirits of the firt and fecond order, and fomtimes alfo of the third order. And this kinde of Characters are efpecially to be named holy; and then th re Characters which we have above called holy What Character foever therefore of this kinde is to be infticuted we muft draw about him a double circle, wherein we muft write the name of his Angel: and if wee will adde fome divine name congruent with his Spiricand Office, it will be of the greater force a dod etricacy. And if we will draw about him any an, alar figinéa:cording to the maner of his numbers thatalio thall b lawfol to be done. But the holy pictures which do make the pentacles,

 Of Occult Pbilofopby,are they which every where are delivered unto us in the Prophets and facred Writings, as well of the old as of the new Te ftament ; even as the figure of the Serpent hanging on the crof $\hat{\mathrm{y}}$, and fuch-like; whereof very many may be found out of the vifions of the Prophets, as of Esaiass, Diniel, E/drass and others, and alfo out of the revelation of the Apocalyple. And we have Ipoken of them in our third book of Occu t Philofophy, where we have made mention of holy things. Therefoge when any pifture is pofited of any of theie holy I mages, let the circle be drawn round about it on each fide thereof, wherein let chere be written fome divine name, that is apt and conformed to the effect of that figure, or elfe there may be written about it fome verficle taken out of part of the body of holy cripture, which may defire toafcertain ur deprecate the deli ed effect. As, if a pentacle were to be made to gain vittory or revenge againft ones enemies, as well vifible as invifitle, the figure may be ta-

Or alfo there may be written about it a verficle of the fifth P Salm: In thes is the ftrength of thy arm: before thy face there is deatb; or fome other fuch-like verficle. But if you will write any divine name about the figue then let fome name be taken that fignifies Fear, 2 Sword, Wrath, the Revenge of God, or fome fuch-like name congruent and agreeing with the effect defined. And if there Thall be written any Angular figure, let him be raken according to tie reaion and rule of the numbers, as we have raughr in our fecond book of Occutt Philofophy, where ne bave treated of the umbers, and ot the like opeations. And of this fortherearetwo pentacles of fublime vertue and great power, very utetui and neceflary to be ufed in the confecration of experments and Spirito: one whereof is that in the firt chaprer of apocalyple; To wit, a figure of the Majelty of God lircing upon a f hone, having in his mouth a tworedged Sword, as chere is written, about which let there

Manda Deus virtutitue, 8c.

Give commandment, $O$ God, to thy frengtb. Confirm, Ob God, thy woork in us.
Let them be as duft before the face of the winde. And let the Angel of the Lord fcatter thew. Let all their wayes be darknefs and uncertain. And let the Angel of the Lord perfecute them.

Moreover, let there be written about in the ten general names, which are, El, Elubim, Elobe, Zebaoth, Elisn, Efcerchie, Adonay, Jab, Tetragrammaton, Saday.

There is another pentacle, the figure whereof is like unto a Lawbe Clain, baving Teven eyes, and Seven bornes, and under bis fiet a book fealed with feven feales, as it is in the 5. chap. of the Apncalypfe. Whereabout let there be written this verficle: Bebold the Lyon bath overcome of the Tribe of udath, the root of David. I will open the Book, and unloofe the feven feals thereof. And one other verficle: I awo Satan like lightning fall down from beaven. Bebild, I bave qiven you powser to tread upon Serpents and Scartions, and over all the power of your enimies, and notbing Shall be able to burt you. And let there be alfo written about it the cen general names, as aforefaid.

But thore Pentacles which are thus made of figures and names, er them keep this order: for when any figure is pofited, eonformate to any number, to produce any certain effect or vertue, there muft be writren thereupon, in all the feveral Angles, ome Divine ame, obtaining the force and efficacie of the ening defired: yet fo neverthelefs, that the name which is of this fort do conift of jutt fo many letters, as the Figure may confitute a number; or of fo many letters of a name, as joyned together amongft themfelves, may make the number of a Fi - gure; or by any number which may be divided witbout any fuperfluity or diminution. Now fuch a name being found, whether it be onely one name or more, or divers names, it is to be written in all the feveral Angles in the Figure: but in the middle of the Figure let the revolution of the name be whole and totally placed, or at leaff principally.

Oftentimes alfo we conftituce Pentacles, by making the revolution of fome kinde of name, in a fquare Table, and by drawing about it a fingle or doubleCircle, and by writing therein fome holy verficle competent and befitting this name, or from which that name is extracted. And this is the way of making the Pentacles, according to their feveral diftinat forms and $\mathrm{f}_{\mathrm{a}}-$ fhions, which we may as we pleafe either multiply or commix together by courfe among themfelves, to work the greater efficacie, and extention and enlargement of force and vertae.

As, if a deprecation fhould be made for the overthrow and deftruction of ones enemies, then we are to minde and call to remembrance how God detroyed the whole face of the earth in the deluge of waters; and the deftrustion of Sodom and Gomurbba, by raining down fire and brimftone; likewife, how God overthrew Pbarach and his hoft in the Red-Sea, and to call to minde if any other malediction or curfe be found in holy Writ. And thus in things of the like fort. So likewife in deprecating and praying againft perilsand dangers of waters, we ought to call to remembrance the faving of Noab in the deluge of waters, the paffing of the children of Ifrael thorow the Red-Sea ; and alfo we are to minde how Chrift walked upon the waters, and faved the fhip in danger to be caft away with the tempeft; and how he commanded the windes and the waves, and they obeyed him ; and alfo, that he drew $P$ fter nut of the water, being in danger of drowning, and the like. And laftly; with thefe we invoke and call upoh fome certais and holy manes of God; to wit, fuch as are fignifigative to accomplifh our defire, and accommodated to the defired effect : as, if it be to overthrow enemies, we are to iniroke and call upon the names of wrath, revenge, fear, juftice, and fortitude of God: and if we would avoid and efcape any evil or danger, we then call upon the names of Mercy, Defence, Salvation, Fortitude, Goodnefs, and fuch like names of God. When alfo we pray unto God that he would grant unto us our defires, we are likewife to intermix therewith the name of fome good (ipirit, whether one onely, or more, whofe office it is to execure our defires: and fomtimes alfo we require fome evil (pirit to reftrain or compel, whofe name likewife we intermingle; and that righty efpecially, if it be to execute any evil worke; as, Revenge, Punifhment, or deftruction.

Furthermore, if there be any Verficle in the Pfalms, or in any other part of holy scripture, that fhall feem congruent and agreeable to our defire, the fame is to be mingled with our prayers. Now after Prayer hath been made unto God, it is expedient afterwards to make an Oration to that executioner whom in our precedent prayer unto God we have defired thould adminifter unto us, whether one or moresor whether he be an Angel, or Star, or Soul, or any of the noble Angels. But this kinde of Oration ought to becompofed according to the Rules which we have delivered in the fecond book of Occult Philofophy, where we have treated of the manner of the compofition of Inchantments.

You may know further, that thefe kinde of bonds have a threefold difference: for the firl bond is, when we conjure hy Natural things: the fecond is compounded of Religious mylteries, by Sacraments, Miracles, and things of this fort; and the third is conftituted by Divine names, and holy Sigils. And by there kinde of bonds, we may binde not onely fpirits, but alfo cther creatures what foever, as animals, tempefts, * burnings ${ }^{}$ Incendia floods of waters and the force and power of Arms. Oftentimes Envie and alfo we ufe theé bon's aforefaid, not onely by Conjuration, but Malice. fomtimes alfo ufug the meanes of Deprecation and Benediction. Moreover, it conduceth much to this purpofe, to joyn fome fentence of holy cripture, if any fhall be found convenient hereunto: as, in the Conjuration of Serpents, by comme $$ super afmorating the curre of the Serpent in the earthly Puradife, and pidem er the fetting up of the Serpent in the wildernefs; and further ad-bafilifcuns ding that Verficle, * T bou ghalt walke upon the AJP and the Bafit ambulabis, lisk, & c .

Of Occult Pbilofopby,

lisk, "bc. Saperftition alfo is of much prevalency herein, by the tranflation of fome Sacramental Rites, to binde that which we intend to hinder ; as, the rites of Excommunicacion, of Sepulchres, Funerals, Buryings, and the like.

And now we come to treat of the Confecrations which men ought to make upon all inftruments and things neceflary to be ufed in this Art: and the vertue of this Confecration moft chiefly confifts in two things; to wit, in the power of the perfon confecrating, and by the vertue of the piayer by which the Confecration is made. For in the perfon confecrating, there is required holinefs of Life, and power of fanctifying: both which are acquired by Dignification and Initiation. And that the perfon himfelf hould with a firm and undoubted faith believe the vertue, power, and efficacie hereof. And then in the prayer it felf, by which this Confecration is made, there is required the like holinefs; which either folely confifteth in the prayer it felf, as, if it be by divine infpiration ordained to this purpofe, fuch as we have in many places of the holy Bible; or that it be here= untoinftitured through the power of the Holy "pirit, in the ordination of the Church. Orherwife there is in the Prayer a Sanctimony, which is not onely by it felf, but by the commemoration of holy things; as, the commemoration of holy Scriptures, Hiftories, Works, Miracles, Effects, Graces, Promires, Sacraments and Sacramental things, and the like. Which things, by a certain fimilitude, do feem properly or improperly to appertain to the thing confecrated.

There is ufed alfo the invocation of fome Divine names, with the confignation of holy Seals, and things of che like fort, which do conduct to fanctification and expiation; fuch as are the Sprinkling with Holy-Water, Unctions with holy Oyl, and adoriferous Suffumigations appertaining to holy Worthip. And therefore in every Confecration there is chiefly ufed the Benediction and Confecration of Water, Oyl , Fire, and Fumigations, ufed everywhere with holy Wax-lights or Lampsburning: for widhout Lights no Sacrament is rightly performed. This therefore is to beknown, and firmly obferved, that if any Confecration be to be made of things profane, in which there is any pollution or defilement, then an ezorcifing and expiation of thofe things ought to precede the confecration. Which things being fo made pure, are more apt to receive the in; fluences of the Divine vertues. We arealfo to oblerve, that in the end of every Confecration, after that the praver is rightly performed, the perfon confecrating ought to blef the thing confecrated, by breathing out fome words, with divine vertue and power. of the prefent Confecration, with the commemoration of his vertue and authority, that it may be the more duly performed, and with an earneft & intentive minde. And therefore we will here lay down fome examples hereof, whereby the way to the whole perfection hereof may the more eafily be made to appear unto you.

So then, in the confecration of water, we ought to commemorate how that God hath placed the firmament in the midft of the waters, and in what manner that God placed the fountain. of waters in the earthly Paradife, from whenee fprang four holy rivers, which watered the whole earth. Likewife we are to call to remembrance in what manner God made the water to be the infrument of executing his juftice in the deftruction of the Gyants in the general deluge over all the earth, and in the overthrow of the hoft of Pharaoh in the Red-fea; alfo how God led his own people thorow the midft of the Sea on dry ground, and through the midtt of the river of fordan ; and likewife how marveloully he drew forth water out of the ftony rock in the wildernefs; and how at the prayer of Samfon, he caufed a fountain of runsing water to flow out of the cheektooth of the jaw-bone of an afs: and likewife, how God hath made waters the inftrument of his mercy, and of falvation, for the expiation of Original fin: alfo, how Chrift was baptized in Jordan, and hath hereby fanctified and clenfed the waters.Moreover, certain divine names are to be invocated, which are conformable hereunto; as, that God is a living fountain, living water, the fountain of mercy ; and pames of the like kinde.
And likewife in the confecration of fire, we are to commemorate how that God hath created the fire to be an infrument to execute his juftice, for punifhment, vengeance, and for the'.

Of Occult Pbilooophy,

expiation of fins: alfo, when God Thall come to judge the world, he will command a conflagration of the to go before him. And we are to call to remembrance in what manner God appeared to Mofes in the burning bula; ; and alfo, how hie went before the children of Ifrael in a pillar offire; and that nothing can be duely offered, facrificed, or fanctified, without fire ; and how that God inftituted fire to be kept continually in the $\mathrm{T}_{\mathrm{a}}$ bernacle of the covenant; ; and how miraculoully he re-kindled the fame, being extinct, and preferved it elfwhere from going out, being hidden under the waters : and things of this fort. Likewife the Names of God are to be called upon which are confonant hereunto; as, it is read in the Law and the Prophets, that God is a confuming fire : and if therebe any of the Divine names which fignifie fire, or fuch-like names; as the glory of God, the light of God, the fplendor and brightnefs of God.

And likewife in the confecration of Oyl and Perfumes, we are to call to remembrance fuch holy things as are pertinent to this purpofe, which we read in Exodus of the holy anointing oyl, and divine names fignificant hereunto, fuch as is the name Chrif, which fignifies anoynted: and what myfteries there are hereof; as that in the Revelation of the two Olive trees diftitling holy Oyl into the lamps that burn before the face of God: and the like.

And the bleffing of the lights, wax, and lamps, is taken from the fire, and the altar which containeth the fubftance of the flame : and what other fuch fimilitudes asare in mytteries; as that of the feven candlefticks and lamps burning before the face of God.

Thefe therefore are the Confecrations which firft of all are neceflary to be ured in every kinde of devotion, and ouight to precede it, and without which nothing in holy. Rites can be duely performed.

Moreover, there is to be commemorated fuch divine names as are fit and convenient hereunto ; as thefe are: The Teftament of Cod, The book of God, The book of life, The knowledge of God, The wirdom of God; and the like. And with fuch kinde of Rites is the perfonal confecration performed.

There is furthermore, befides thefe, another Rite of confecration, of wonderful power, and much efficacie; And this is out of the kindes of fuperftitions: That is to fay, when the Rite of confecration or collection of any Sacrament in the Church is transferred to that thing which we would confecrate.
It is to be known allo, that Vowes, Oblations, and Sacrifice, have the power of confecration, afwel real as perfonal; and they are as it were certain covenants and conventions between thofenames with which they are made, and us who make them, ftrongly cleaving to our defire and wifhed effect : As, when we dedicate, offer, and facrifice, with certain names or things; as, Eumigations, Unetions, Rings, Images, Looking-glaffes; and shings lefs material, as Deities, Sigils,. lamb at the Now this book is to be made of moft pure and clean paper, zaff-end of that hath never been uled before; which many do call * Virgin\$t. Pauls cburch:and cifis aper. And this book munt be incribed after this manner: that likevife the is to fay, Let there be placed on the left fade the image of the Virgin- fpirit, and on the right fide his character, with the Oath above Parchment, and the bef abiertives. the miniftery of evil (pirits) a certain Rite of invocating fpirits by a Book to be confecrated before to that purpofe; which is properly called, $\dagger \mathcal{A}$ Book of Spirits; whereof we fhall now. fpeak a few words. For this Book is to be confecrated, a book of evil fpirits, ceremonioufly to be compofed in their name and ord sr: whereunto they binde with a certain holy Oath, the ready and prefent obedience of the firit therein written. Paper. And this book mult be infcribed after this manner: that t, containing the name of tre (pirit, and bis dignity and place, with his office and power. Yet very many do compofe thisbook otherwile, omitring the characters or image : but it is more:
efficacious not to neglect any thing which conduceth to it.
Moreover, there is to be obferved the circumflances of places, times, hours, according to the Stars which thefefpirits are under, and are feen to agree unto; their fite, rite, and order being applied.

Which book being fo written, and well bound, is to be adorned, garnifhed, and kept fecure, with Regifters and Seals, left it fhould happen after the confecration to open in fome place not intented, and indanger the operator. Furthermore, this book ought to be kept as reverently as may be: for irreverence of minde caufeth ittolofe its vertue, with pollution & profanation.

Now this facred book being thus compofed according to the manner already delivered, we are then to proceed to the confecration thereof after a twofold way: one whereof is, That all and fingular the fipits who aie written in the book, be called to the Circle, according to the Rites and Order which we have before tanght ; and the book that is to be confecrated, let it be placed without the Circle in a triangle. And in the firft place, let there be read in the prefence of the firits all the Oathes which are written in that book; and then the book to be confecrated being placed without the Circle in a triangle there drawn, let all the fírits be compelled to impofe their hands where their images and charaters are drawn, and to confirm and confecrate the fame with a fpecial and common Oath. Whidh being done, let the book be taken and fhut, and preferved as we have before fpoken, and let the firits be licenfed to depart, according to due and right order.

There is another manner of confecrating a book of firits; which is more eafie, and of much efficacy to produce every effect, except that in opening this book the fpirits do not alwayes come vifible. And this way is thus: Let there be made a book of fpirits as we have before fet forth ; but in the end thereof let there be written Invocations & Bonds, & ftrong conjurations wherewith every firit may be bound. Then this book muft be bound between two Tables or Lamens, and in the infide thereof let there be drawn the holy Pentacles of the Divine Majeftie, which we have before fet forsh and defcribed out of the the Aprsalypfe : then let the firft of them be placed in the beginningof the book, and the fecond at the end of the fame. This book being perfected after this manner, let it he-brought in a clear and fair time, to a Circle prepared in a crofs way, accor. ding to the Art which we have before delivered; and there in the firft place the book heing opened, let it be confecrated to the rites and wayes which we have before declared concerning Confecration. Which being done, let all thefpirits becalled which are written in the book, in their own order and place, by: conjuring them thrice by the bonds defcribed in the book, that they come unto that place within the fpace of three days, to affure their obedience, and confirm the fame, to the book fo to be confecrated. Then let the book be wrapped up in clean linen, and buriedin the middle of the Circle, and there faft ftopped up: and then the Circle being deftroyed, after the firus are licenfed, depart before the rifing of the fun: and on the chird day, abont the middle of the night, return, and new make the Circle, and with bended knees make prayer and giving thanks unto God, and let a precious perfume be made, and open the hole, and take out the book; and fo ler it be kept, not opiening the fame. Then you fhall licenfe the fpirits in their brder; and deftroying the Circle, depart before the fun rife. And chisis the laft rite and maner of confecrating profitable to whatfoever writings and experiments, which do direet the fpirits, placing the fame between two holy Lamens or Pentacles; as before is flrewin.

But the Operator, when he would work by the Book thus confecrated, let him do it in a fair and clear feafon, when the fpirits are leaft croubled; and let him place himfelf towards the region of the fpirits. Then let him open the book under adue Regifter; let him invoke the firits by their Oath there defcribed and confirmed, and by the name of their character and image, to that purpofe which you defire : and if there be need, conjure them by the bonds placed in the end of the book. And having attained your defired effect, then you fhall licenfe the fpirits to depart.

And now we fhall come to (peak concerning the invocations of fpirits, as well of the good fpirits as of the bad.

The

The goodf pirits may be invocated of us divers wayes, 57 in fundry manners do offer themfelves unto us. For they do openly fpeak to thofe that watch, and do offer themelves to our fight, or do inform us in dreams by oracle of thofe things which are defired. Whofoever therefore would call any good fpirit, to ipeak or appear in fight, it behoveth them elpecially to obferve two things: one whereof is about the difpofition of the invocant ; the other about thofe things which are outwardly to beadhibited to the invocation, for the conformity of the firits to be called. It behoveth therefore that the invocant himfelf be religioully difpofed for many dayes to fuch a myftery. In the firft place therefore, he ought to be confeffed and contrite, both inwardly and ourwardly, and rightly expiated by daily wafhing himfelf with holy water. Moreover, the invocant ought to conferve himfelf all thefe dayes, chafte, ak= ftinent, and to Ceparate himfelf as much as may be done, from all perturbation of minde, and from all manner of forraign and fecular bufinefs. Alfo, he fhall obferve faftings all there days, as much as fhall feem convenient to him to be done. Alfo, let him daily between fun-rifing and fun-fetting, being clothed with a holy linengarment, feven times call upon God, and make a deprecation to the Angels to be called according to the rule which we have before tanghe. Now the number of dayes of fafting and preparation is commonly the time of a whole Lunation. There is alfo another number obferved amongtt the Cabalifts, which is forty days.

Now concerning thofe things which do appertain to this Rite of Invocation, the firft is, That a place be chofen, clean, pure, clofe, quiet, free from all manner of noife, and not fubject to any ftrangers fight. This place mutt firft be exorcifed and confecrated : and let there be a table or altar placed therein, covered with clean white linen, and fet towards the eaft: and on each fide thereof, let there be fet two confecrated wax-lights burning, the flame whereof ought not to go out all thefe days. In the middle of the altar, let there be placed Lamens, or the holy paper which we have before defcribed, covered with fine linen; which is not to be opened until the end of theere days of the Confecration. You fhall alfo have in readinefs a precious perfume, and pure anointing oyl; and let them be both kepe. confecrated. There mult alfo a cenfer be fet on the head of the altar, wherein you thall kindle the holy fire, and make a perfume every day that you thall pray. You fhall alfo have a long garment of white linen, cloie before and behinde, which may cover the whole body and the feet, and girt about you with a girdle. You fhall alfo have a veil of pure clean linen, and in the fore-part thereof let there be fixed golden or gilded Lamens, with the inccription of the name Tetragrammaton; all which things are to be fanctified and confecrated in order. But you mult not enter into the holy place, unlefs it be ferft wafhed, and arrayed with a holy garment ; and then you thall enter into it with your feet naked. And when you enter therein, you tha!! Iprinkle it with holy water : then you thall make a pertume upon the a'rar, and afterwards with bended knees pray before the altar as we have directed.

But in the end of thefe dayes, on the laft day, you fhall faft more firictly: and fatting on the day following, at the rifing of che fun, you may enter into the holy place, uting the ceremonies before fpoken of, firft by fprinkling your relf, then with making a perfume, you thall figne your felf with koly oyl in the forehead, and anoynt your eyes; ufing prayer in all thefe Confecrations. Then you thall open the holy Lamen, and pray before the altar upon your knees, as above faid : and then an invocation being made to the Angels, they will appear unto you, which you defire; which you fhall entertain with a benign and chafte communication, and licenfe them to depart.

Now the Lamen which is to be ufed to invoke any good fpirit, you fhall make after this maner; either in metal conformable, or in new wax, mixt with fpices and colours conformable: -or it may be made with clean paper, with convenient colours: and the outward form or figure thereofmay be quare, circular, or triangular, or of the like fort, according to the rule of the numbers: in which there nutt be written the divine names, as well the general names as the fpecial. And in the centre of the Lamen, let there be drawn a character of fix corners; in the Hexagonts middle whereof, let there be written the name and character of the Star, or of the Spirit his governour, to whom the good fpirit that is to be called is fubject. And about this character, let there be placed fo many characters of five corners, as the Peniagonus fpirits we would call together at once. And if we fhall call onely one fpitit, neverthelefs there fhall bemade four Pentagones, wherein the name of the firit or firits, with their characters, is to be written. Now this table ought to be compored when the Moon is increafing, on thofe dayes and hours which then agree to the foirit. And if we take a fortunate ftar herewith, it will be the better. Which Table being made in this manner, it is to be confecrated according to the rules above delivered.

And this is the way of making the general Table, ferving for the invocation of all good firits whatfobser. Neverthelefs we may make fpecial Tables congruent to every firit, by the rule which we have above foken of concerning holy Pentacles.

And now we will declare unto you another Rite more eafie to performe this thing: that is to fay, let the man that is to receive an Oracle from the good firits, be chafte, pure, and confefs'd. Then a place being prepared pure and clean, and covered every where with white linen, on the Lords day in the new of the Moon let him enter into that place, clothed with clean white garments; and let him exorcize the place, and blefs it, and make a Circle therein with a fanctified cole; and lee there be written in the uttermoft part of the Circle the names of the Angels, and in the inner part thereof let there be written the mighty names of God: and let him place within the Circle, at the four angles of the world, the Cenfers for the perfumes. Then let him enter the place fafting, and wafhed, and let him begin to pray rowards the eaft this whole Pfalm: Beati imma- Pfal. ryo. culati in via, &c. Bleffed are the uxdefiled in the way, &c. by perfuming; and in the end deprecating the Angels, by the faid divine names, that they will daign to difcover and reveal that which he defireth: and that let him do fix days, continuing wathed and fatting. And on the reventh day, which is the Sabbath, let him, being wafhed and fafting, enter the Circle, and perfume it, and anoynt himfelf with holy anoynting oyl, by annoynting his forehead, and upon both his eyes, and in the palms of his hands, and upon his feet. Then upon his knees let him fay the Pfalm aforefard, with Divine and Angelical names. Which being faid, let him arife, let him begin to walk about in a Circle within the faid Circle from the eaft to the weft, until he is wearied with a dizzinefs of his brain: let himfall down in the Círcle, and there he may reft; and forthwith he fhall be wrapt up in an ecflafie, and a firit will appear unto him, which will informe him of all things. We muft obferve alro, that in the Circle there ought to be four holy candles burning at the four parts of the world, which ought not to want light for the fpace of a whole week. And che manner of fafting mult be fuch, that he abftain from adl things having a life of Sence, and from thofe which do proceed from them : and let him onely drink pure running water: neither let him take any food till the going down of the fan. And let the perfume and the holy anoynting oyl be made; as is fet forth in Exodur and the other holy books of the Bible. It is alfo to be obferved, that always as often as he enters into the Circle, he hath upon his forehead a golden lamen, upon which there muft be written the name Tetragrammaton, as we have before fpoken.

But natural things, and their commixtures, do alfo belong unto us, and are conducing to receive Oracles from any fpirit by a dream : which are either Perfumes, Unctions, and Meats or Drinks: which you may underttand in our firt book of Occult Philofophy.

Byt he that is willing al ways and readily to receive the Oracles of a Dream, let him make unto himerelfa Ring of the Sun or of Saturn for this purpofe. There is alfo an Image to be made, of excellent efficacie and power to work this effet ; which being put under his head when he goeth to fleep, doth effectually give true dreams of what thing foever the minde hath before determined or confulted on. The Tables of Num-

Holy Tables and Papers do alro ferve to this eftect, being fpecially compofed and confecrated: fach as is the Almadel of Solomon, and the Table of the Revolution of the name Tetragrammaton. And thofe things which are of this kinde, and written unto thefe things, out of divers figures, numbers, noly pictures, with the infcriptions of the holy names of God and of Angels; the compofition whereof is taken out of divers places of the holy Scriptures, Pfalms, and Verficles, and other certain promifes of the divine Revelation and Prophecies.

Tothe fame effect do conduce holy prayers & imprecations, as well unto God, as to the holy Angels and Heroes: the inprecations of which prayers are to be compofed as we have before fhewn, according to lome religious fimilitude of Miracles, Giaces, and the like, making mention of thore things which we intend ro do: as, out of the old Tettament, of the dream of Facob, Fofeph, Pharaob, Daniel, and Nebuchadnezear: if out of the New reitament, of the dreem of Jofept the busband of the virgifferary; of the dream of the chree Wifemen; of fobn the Evangelift fleeping upon the breft of our Lord: and whatfoever of the like kinde can be found in Religion, Miracles, and Revelations; as, the revelation of the Crofs to Helens, the revelations of Conftantine and Charles the Great, the revelations of Bridget, Cyril, Merhodius, Mechtild, Foashim, Merbir, and fuch-like. According to which let the deprecations be compoled, if when he goeth to fleep it be with a firm intention: and the reft well difpofing themfelves, let them pray devoutly, and without doubt they will afford a powerful effect.

Now he that knoweth how to compofe thofe things which we have now fooken of, he fhall receive the mot erue Oracles of dreams. And this he fhall do ; obferve thofe things which in the fecond book of Occult Philofophy are directed concerning this thing. He that is defrous therefore to receive an Oracle, let hin abtain from fupper and from drink, and be $\mathrm{c}=$ therwife well difpofed, his brain being free from turbulent va= pours; let him alfo have his bed-chamber fair and clean, exorcifed and confecrated if he will; then let him perfume the fame with fome convenient fumigation ; and let hims noint his temples with fome unguent efficatious hereunto, and put a ring upon his finger, of the things above fpoken of: let him take either fome image, or holy rable, or holy piper, and place the fame under his head: then having made a devout prayer, let him go unto his bed, and meditating upon that thing which he defireth to know, let him fo fleep; for fo fhall he receive a moft certain and undoubred oracle by a dream, when the Moon goeth through that figne which was in the ninth Houle of his nativity, and alfo when the goeth through the figne of the nim $h$ Houre of the Revolution of his nativity; and when the is in the ninth figne from the figne of perfection. And this is the way and mennes whereby we may obtain all Sciences and Arts whatfoever, fuddenly and perfectly, with a true Illumination of our underftanding; although all inferiour familiar Spirits whatfoever do conduce to this effect; and fomtimes alfo evill Spirits fenfibly informing us Intrinfecally or Extrinfecally.

But if we would call any evil Spirit to the Circle, it firtt behoveth us to confider, and to know his nature, to which of the Planets it agreeth, and what Offices are dilfributed to him from the Planet; and teing known, let there be fought out a place fte snd proper for his invocation, according to the nature of the Planet, and the quality of the Offices of the faid Spirit, as near as the fame may be done : as, if their power be over the Sea, Rivers or Flouds, then let the place be chofen in the Shore ; and fo of the reft. Then lec chere be chofen a convenient time, both for the quality of the Air, ferene, clear, quiet, and fitting for the Spirits to affume bodies; as alfo of the quality and nature of the Planet, and of the Spirit, as to wit, on his day, or the time wherein he ruleth: he may be fortunate or infortunate, fometimes of the day, and fometimes of the night, as the Stars and Spirits do require. Thefe things being confidered, let there be a Circle framed in the place elected, arwel for the defence of the Invocant, as for the confirmation of the Spirit. And in the Circle it felf there are to be written the divine general names, and thofe things which do yeild defence untous; and with them, thofe divine names which do rule this Planet., and the Offices of the Spirit himfelf; there fhall allo be writcen therein, the names of the good Spirits which bear rule, and are able to binde and conltrain that Spirit which we incend to call. And if we will any more fortifie and ftrengthen our Circle, we may adde Characters and Pentacles agreeing to the work; then alfo if we will, we may either within or withour the Circle, frame an angular figure, with the infcription of fuch convenient numbers, as are congruent amongit chemfelves to our work; which are allo to be known, according to manner of numbers and figures : of which in the fecond book of Occult Philofophy it is fufficiently fooken. Furthermore, he is to be provided of lights, perfumes, unguents and medicines, compounded according to the nature of the Planet and Spirit ; which do partly agree with the Spirit, by reafon of their natural and coleftial vertue ; and pardy are exhibited to the Spirit for religious and fupertitious worthitp. Then he mult be furnifhed with holy and confecrated things, neceffary afwel for the defence of the Invocant, and his fellows, as alfo ferving for bonds to biade and conftrain the Spirits; fuch as are eicher holy Papers, Lamens, Picures, Pentacles, Swords, Scepters, Garments of convenient matter and colour, and things of the like fort. Then when all thefe things are provided, and the Malter and his fellows being in the Circle, in the firlt place let him confecrate the Circle, and all thofe things which he uferh ; which being performed with a convenient ge(ture and countenance, let him begin to pray with a loud voice, after this manner. Firft let him make an Oration unto God, and then let him intreat the good Spirits: and if he will read any Prayers, Pfalms, or Gofpels for his defence, chey oughe to take the firft place. After thefe Prayers and Orations are faid, then let him begin to invocate the Spirit which he defriech, with a gentle and loving Inchantment, to all the coafts of the World, with the commemoration of his own Auchority and power, Andstion let him reft a little, looking abour him, to fee if any Spirit do appear ; which if he delay, then let hin repeac bis invocation, as above faic, until he hath done in three times; and if the Spirit he pertinacious, oblitinate, and will not appear", then let him begin to conjure with divine power ; fo alfo that the conjurations and all his commemorations do agree with the Nature and Offices of the Spirit himfelf; and reiterate the fame three times, from ftronger to ftronger, ufing Objurgations, Contumelies, Curfings, and Punifhments, and fuiferifion from his Office and Power, and the like.

And after all the courfes are finifhed, then ceale a lictle ; andif any Spirit fhall appear, let the Invocant turne himfelf rowards the Spirit, and courteoufly receive him, and earnefly intreating him, let him firftrequire his name, and if he be called by any other wame :and then proceeding further, let himask him whatfoever he will: and if in any thing the Spirit fhall fhew himfelf obtinate or lying, lei him be bound by convenient conjurations: and if you doubt of any lye, make without the Circle with the confecrated Sword, the fi-

Then having obtained of the Spirit that which you defire, or are otherwife contented, licenfe him to depare with courreous words, giving command unto him, that he do no hurt : and if ge will not depart, compel him by powerful conjurations; and if need require, expel him by Exorcims atud by making contrary fumigations. And when he is departed, go not out of the Circle, tur make a fay; making prayer, and giving of thanks unto God and the good Angels, and alro praying for your defence and confervation: and chen all thoferhings being orderly performed, you may depart.

But if your hope be froltrated, and no Spirit will a ppear, yet for this do mot defpair ; but leaving the Circle, rerurn again at other times, doing, as before. And if you hall judge that you have erred in any thing, then you hall amend by adding or diminifhing ; for the conitancy of Reiteration doth often increafe you auchoriry and power, and friketh terrous: into the Spitits, and humbleth them to obey.

And therefo:e fome ufe to make a Gate in che Circle, whereby chey may go in and out, which they open and fhut as they pleafe, and fortifie it with holy Names and Pentacles.

This alfowe are to take notice of, That when no Spirits will appear, but the Mafter being wearied hath determined to ceale and give over $;$ let him not therefore depart without licenfing the Spirits : for they that do neglect this, are very greatly in danger, except they are fortified with fome fublime defence.

Oftentimes alfo the Spirits do come, although they appear not vifible, (for to caufe terrour to him that calls them)either in the thing which he ufeth, or in the operation it felf. Bat. this kinde of licealing is not given fimply, but by a kinde of difpenfation with fufpenfion, until in the following rerms they Thall render themfelves obedient. Alfo without a Circle thefe Spirits may be called to appear, according to the way which is above delivered about the confecration of a Book.

But when we do intend to execute any effect by evil Spiritgs, where an Apparition is not needful; then that is to be done, by making and forming that which is to be unto us as an infrument, or fubject of the experiment it felf; as whether it be an Image, or a Ring, or a Writing, or any Character, Candle, or Sacrifice, or any thing of the like fort; then the name of the Spirit is to be writen therein, with his Character, according to the exigency of the experiment, either by writieg it with fome blood, or otherwife ufing a perfume agreeable to the Spirit. Oftentimes allomaking Prayers and Orations to God and the good Angels before we invocate the evil Spirit, conjuring him by the divine power.

There is another kinde of Spirits which we have fpoken of in our shird book of Occult Philofophy, not fo hureful, and neereft men; fo alio, that they are affected with humane paffions, and do joy in the converfation of men, and freely do inhabit with them : and others do dwell in the Woods and Defarts ; and others delight in the company of divers domettique

Of Occult Pbileoophy,

Animals and wilde Beafts; and othesfom do inhabit aboue Fountains and Meadows. Whofoever therefore would call up thefe kinde of Spirits, in the place where they abide, it oughr to be done with oderiferous perfumes, and with fweet founds and inftruments of Mufick, feecially compofed for the bufiness, with uing of Songs, Inchantments and pleafant Verles, with praifes and promifes.

But thofe which are obftinate to yeild to thele things, are to be compelled with Threatnings, Comminations, Curfings, Delufions, Contumelies, and efpecially by threatning them to expel themfrom thofe places where they are converfant.

Further, if need be, thou maift betake thee to ufe Exorcifms ; but the chiefeft thing that ought to be oblerved, is, conltancy of minde, and boldners, free and alienated from fear.

Laftly, when you would invocate thefe kinde of Spirits, you ought to prepare a Table in the place of invocation, covered with clean linen; whereupon you fhall fet new bread, and running water or milk in new earther veffels, and new knives. And you thall make a fire, whereupon a purfume fhall be made. But let the Invocant go unto the head of the Table, and round about it let there be fears placed for the Spirits, as you pleafe $;$ and the Spirits being called, you fhall invite them ro drink and eat. Bur if perchance you fhall fear any evil Spirit, then draw a Circle about it, and let that part of the Table at which the Invocant fits, be within the Circle, and the reft of the Table without the Circle.

In our third book of Occult Philofophy, we have taught how and by what meanes the Soul is joyned to the Body; and, what hapneth to the foul after death.

Thou maif know further, That thofe Souls do fill love their relinquifhed Bodies after death, as it were a certain affinity alluring them; fuch as are the Souls of noxious men, which have violently relinquifhed their Bodies, and Souls wanting a due burial, which do Atill wander in a liquid and turbulent

The fairth Book.

 bulent Spirits about their dead carcaffes; for thefe Souls by the known meanes by w ich heretofore they were conjoyned to their Boilies, by the like vapo:s, liquors, and favours, are eafily drawn unco them. called up withour blood, or by the app ication of fome part of cy theis relict Body, la the sailing up of thefe fhadows, we are to perfume with new Blood, with the Bones of the dead, and with Flefh, Egges, Mik, Honey and Oll and fuch-like nings, which do atribate to the Suls a meanes apt to receive their Bodies.

It is alfo to be underftood, That thofe who are defirous to raile up any Souls of the dead, they ought to do it in thole places, wherein thele kinde of Souls are molt known to be converfant ; or for lome alliance alluring thole fouls into their forlaken body; or for fome kinde of affection in times patt, inpreffed in them in their life, drawing the faid Souls to certain places, things; or perfons; or for the forcible nature of rome place fitted and prepared for to purge or punifh there fouls. Which places for the molt part are co be known by the experience of vifions, nightly incurfions, and apparitions, and fuch-like prodigies feen.

Therefore the places molt fitting for thefe things; are Church-yards. And better then them, are thofe places wherein there is the execution of criminal judgements. And better then thefe, are thofe places, in which of late yeers there have been fome publick flaughters of men. Furthermore, that place is better then thefe, where fome dead carkars, that came by violent death, is not yet expiated, nor sicely buried, and was lately buried; for the expiacion of thofe places, is allo a holy Rite duly to be adhibited to the burial of the bodies, and oftentimes prohibiteth the fouls to come unto their bodies, and expelleth them far off unto the places of judgement.

And from hence it is, That the Souls of the dead are not eafily to be raifed up, except it be the Souls of them whom we know to be evil, or to have perinfied by a violent death, and whofe bodies do want a right and cueburial.

Now alchough we have foken concerning fuch places of this kinde, it will nor be fafe or commodious to go unto them: but it beboveth us to take to what place foever is to be choren, tome principal part of the body that is relict, and therewith to make a perfame in due manner, and to performe other comperent Rires.

It is allo to be known, that becaure the Souls are certain fpiritual lights, therefore artificial lights, efpecially if they be framed out of certain competent things, compounded according to a true rule, with congruent inforiptions of Names and Seals, do very much avail to the raining up of departed Soult.

Moreover, there things which are now spoken of, are not aiwayes fufficient co raife up Souls, becaufe of an extranatlix ral portion of underftandiag and reafon, which is above, and known onely to the Heaven and Deftinies, and their power. We oughr therefore to allure the faid Souls, by fupernarural and colettial powers duely adminittred, even by thofe shings. which do move the very harmony of the Soul, afwel inaginative, as rational and inrellectual; as are Voices, Songs, Sounds, Inchantments: and Religiousthings ; as. Prayers, Conjurations, Exorcifnes, and otner holy Rites, which may very commodiounly be adminiltred hereusro.

For we fee in this book, as it were a cercain introduction of Magical vanity; and as it were in prefent exercie, they may behold the dittinct functions of fipiris, how they may be drawn to diicourfe and communication; what is ra bè done every day, and every hour; and how they fhall be rear, as if they were defcribed fillable by fillable.

In brief, in this book are kept the principles of Magical conveyances. Bat decaure the greatelt power is attributed to the Circles; (For they are certain forreffes to defend the operators fafe from the evil Spirits; ) In the firl place we will treat concerning the compofition of a Circle.

Of the Circle, and the compofition thereof.

THe form of Circles is not alwayes one and the fame ; but uferh to be changed, according to the order of the Spirits that are to be called, their places, times, daies and hours. Fo: in making a Circle, it ought co b confidered in wiat time of the year, what day, and what hour, that you make the Circle; what Spirits you would call, to what Star and Region they do elong, and what functions they have. Therefore let there be marte three Civcles of the lairude of nine foot, and let them be ditant one fiomanother a hands breadth; and in the middle Ci cle, firf, write the name of the hour wheren you do the work. In the fecond place, Write th: name of the Anvel of the hour. In the third place, The figil of the Angel of $t$ e hour. Fuurthly, The name of the Angel that rulerh in tay whereia you do the work, and the names of Minilters. In the filth place, The name of the prefent rir... Sixthly, The name of the Spirits ruling in that part of cine, and their Prefidents. Seventhly, The name of she headof the Signe tuling in that part of time wherein you work. Eighthly, The name of the earth, according to that patt of time wherein you wo:k. Niathly, and for the compleating of the middle Circle, Write the num of the Sun and of the Moon, according to the faid rule of time; for as the tine is changed, fo the names are to be alcered. And in the outermolt Circle, let chere be drawn in the four Angles, the names of the prefidential Angels of the Air, that day wherein you would do this wo:k; to wir, the name of the King and his three Minilters. Without the Circle, in four Angles, let Pertagones be made. In the inner Circle let there be written four divine names with croffes interpofed in the middle of the Cicle; to wit, towards the Eattler there be writcen Alpha, and coward ${ }^{\text {r che We W }}$ Wet there be writeen Ornega; and let a cofs divide the middle of che Circle. Wher the Cicle is thus finifhed, accoiding to the rule now before wricten, you thali pioceed.

IEt the Moon be increafing and equal, if it may then be done, and let her not be comburt.
The Operator ought to be clean and purified by the pace of nine days before che beginning of the work, and to be confeffed, and receive the holy Communion. Let him have ready the perfume appropriated to the day wherein he would perform the work. He ought alfo to have holy water from a Prieft, and a ne wearthen veffel with fire, a Vefture and Pentacle; and let all thefe things be rightly and duly confecrated and prepared. Let one of the fervants carry the earthen veffel full of fire, and the perfumes, and let another bear the book, another the Garment and Pentacle, and let the mafter carry'the Sword; over which there mult be faid one Mafs of the Holy Ghoft; and on the middle of the Sword, let there be written this name $A \lg$ a $t$, and on the other fide thereof, the name $\dagger O_{n} \dagger$. And as he goeth to the confecrated place, let him continually read Letanies, the fervants anfwering. And when he cometh to the place where he will erect the Circle, let him draw the lines of the Circle, as we have before taught: and after he hath made it, let him fprinkle the Circle with holy water, faying, afperges me Domine, \&c.

The Mafter therefore onght to be purified with fafting, chaftity, and abftinency from all luxury the face of three whole days before the day of the operation. And on the day that he would do the work, being clothed with pure garments, and furni(hed with Pentacles, Perfumes, and other things necelfary hereunto, let him enter the Circle, and call the Angels from the four parts of the world, which do goo vern the feven Planets the feven dayes of the week, Colours and Metals; whofe name you thall ree in their places. By Geo. PiEtorius Villinganus Dr. in Phyfick. - Castor and Pollux. Caftor.

He Greeks do report, that Caflor and Pollux bave both proceeded from oie egge; but this I fcarcely credit, by reafon of the difference of your mindes; for thou affecteft the heavens; but the meditates upon the earth and flaughters.
Pollux. And from thence perhaps was derived that argument, That liberty of lying was almayes ajsigned to the Greeks.

Cafter. Principally.

Pollux. I confefs it is truth thou fpeakeft; but for ought I hear, thou doft mifunderftand the Etymologie of the word compared in this Proverb; for Damon here is not an horrible or odious name, but the name of one that doth adminifter plialib.2. help or fuccor unto another, and whom Pliny calleth a God. sh.lp. 7. Pollux. Thou haft not thot befides the mark: for, that there are more Damons then that fublunary one which thou underAtandeft, every one may eafily perceive, who hath not negligently read the opinions of the moft excellent Plato.

But the other degree is derived from thofe Spirits which Thefecond Apuleius termeth rational animals, paffive in their minde, and degres. eternal in their time, underftanding the apoftate Spirits fpread abroad from the bounds and borders of the Moon, unto us iunder the dominion of their Prince Beelzebuib, which before the fall of Lucifer had pure clarified bodies; and now, like unto the former, do wander up and down, after their trangreflion, in the form of an aiery quality.

Pollux. The Ecclefiaftical Scripture everywhere maketh mention of the rifing of them; but I will unfold fuch a doubt: and there do arife many and various opinions of Writers, but more commonly Peter. Caftor. Thou haft now declared that the Archangel that became an apoftate, did draw away very many other Angels with him in his fall, that they might become Devils: could not he of his own proper infeparate malice after his fall fuffeciently rule over his own Province, without the Angelsn that fell with him?

Pollux. Saxo Grammaticus, in the fifth book of his Danifb Hiftory, doth moft truly fubferibe their confents and agreements to this thy Affertion; for there he fets before our eyes an admirable Hiftory of one Afuitus and Afrumendur, which eafily proveth all thy fayings.

Caftor. I bereech thee declare this unto me, Pollux.
Pollux. Give attention; it is thus: Afuitus and Afmundus A'wonderhad fworn with mutual vows each to other, what he which fll Hiftory fhould live longeft of them, would entomb himfelf alive. Now ficknefs did confume away Afuitus hefore Afmundis; whereupon $A$ fmundus for his Oath of friendflip fake, with his dog and his horfe entombed himfelf alive in a vaft deep dent; having carried with him fome neat, whereupon a lang time he fed. And at length Ericus the King of Suecia came into that place with an Army, and broke open the tomb of Afuitus; (fuppofing there had been treafure hid therein) but when the cave was opened, he drew out $A$ fmundus, and brought him into the light, who was covered with a deformed Mharp countenance, a deadly deformity, and gored with blood flowing from his frefh wounds.

Caftor. But this fory pertaineahnot to our purpofe.
Pollux. Truly it doth, if you diligently mark thefe verfes, which fet forth the caufe of his wounds.
Caftor. Shew me thofe verie; if thou hait them.

Of the Nature of Spirits.

Geffor. Why therefore have ethe Divines declared, That the Aimightyy hath given two kindes of Spirits unto men; the one good, the keeper and preferver of their lives, the other evil, reifiling the good: if they are all evil?

- Pollux. The holy Doctors do undertand by the good Spirit a good Angel, fuch as we read Raphael was to Tobias, who bound the evil spirit $A$ f modeus in the wildernefs of the furthelt parts of Egypt, that he might be the morefafe.
Ciaftor. It had been more fafe for every man to have been without the evil Spirits; what therefore was the will of the heavenly Father concerning them?

Folux. That by the affiftance of the good Spirits, we might couragioully wage contimual war againit the evil Spirits; but being clothed with the harnefs of righteonfnefs, like valiant fouldiers we may gird our loyns with truth, and with the theild of faith refift and fight againft all his darts.

Caftor. If we condercend unto this warfare of Spirits, it feemeth good to inquire whether the Devils have power of doing hurt, granted into chemby God; or whether of themfelves they can hurt as much as they pleafe?

Pollus. If the laft were true, who could compare the end The devils of their hurting? but it is very manifelt, that their authority are the fromon high is of fo great exiftency, that Fohn the Evange- Princes of lif doubteth not to name the Devils the Princes of the the carth. barthif © Caftor. In what manner therefore do they hurt?
$\because$ Pollux. Although they be moft mighty and powerful Spirits, yet they can do no hurt unlefs it be by permifion; or, as $D_{a}$ mafcenus faith, By difpenfation. And Clbryfoftom faith, They bave a limited poswer; for truly mithout the will of God, they cannor touch a bair of anymans bead. The Devil could not have deeeived the Prophets of Abab, if he had not received power from God; neither could he have brought any detriment upon Fob, either unto his body or his goods, but by the power God had given him. In the 7 of Exodus the Magicians made Frogs and Serpents by the power of the Devil permifively; but Lice they could not bring forth, by reafon of the greater power of God prohibiting them. Neither in the Gofpef could the Devils hurt the Swine until Chrift had given them leave.

Caftor. Therefore the Devil is not fo much to be feared, but the Lord our God, that either he would not fuffer him to rage againft us; or if at any time by his own determinate counfel he lec loofe his chains, that then he would defend and mercifully preferve us.
f Potlux. Thou fayeft well; for evenas a wilde Boar is not to be feared if he be bound, and held with a ftrong chain by a powerful ftrong man, and who is ab'e by his itrength to reftrain the fiercenefs of the Boar; but the man is to be feared, and requefted, that he would not let loofe the Baar: So alro Satan is not to be feared, being bound with the cords of the Almighty; but the Almighty rather, who holdeth him with a cord, left at any time he fhould let loore his cord, for to execute his will againftus.

The devils feducement where the word is not known.

Caffor. We know that the Devils, after the incarnation of the Word, were called the Lords of the earth; but I wonder; where the Word is not yet incarnate, whether they have power alfo over men.

Pollux. If it pleaferh God, they have very much; but take a demonftration thereof, Caftor, from the Caldeans, amongt whom the Devil raged with fo much power and dominion, that they made no efteem of the true God, but worfhipped the elements. There needeth not a demoniftration of the Greeks; for the fury of the Devil did to much reign amongtt them, that by his Arguments, they accounted Saturn for a very great God, devouring their own proper Children; and Jupiter, an adulterer and facher of all filchinefs, they named to be the father of Gods and men; Bacchus, the moft wicked example of all fervitude and bondage, they called a free fan ther; Venws a Atrumper, they termed a pure virgin; and they wor hipped Flor a an harlot, as a type or example of virginity. There is no man that is ignorant, that the Egyptians have been worfe then the Greeks, when they made peculiar Gods to shemfelves, by the inanimate perfwafions of the Devil: for one worfhipped a fheep, another a goat, another a calfe ; very many did worthip hoggs, crows, hawks, vuluerres; eagles, crocodiles, cats, dogs, wolves, affes, dragons; and things growing alfo, as onyons, garlick, and thornes; as every one that is covetouss of reading, fhall finde in Damafeenus, in his Hittory of $\mathcal{G}$ gaphat and Barlaws, and in Eufebius, in the fourch book and firt Chapter of Evangelical Preparations; neither do Iaccount the Hibrems (who glory iin being the off-ppring of their tather Abrabam) to have been better then the former, when alfo by the inftumt of the devil, after their coming up out of Egypt, with cruel hands they violently aflaulted the Prophets and holy men of God, whiom at length they alfo flew: that I may hold my peace, how diligently they have hrought into their Religion the Gods, or rather Devils of the Gertiles.

Caftor. I perceive by theie thy affertions, that one Devil, and another Devil, hath been adored for Gods; for thou haft now faid, That the Greeks, by the madnefs wherewith the devil poffeffed them, have made unto themfelves, Saturn, Fupiter, Bacchus, Venus, and Flora, for Gods ; which LaEtantius in his fourch book De vera Sapientia, alfo accounteth for Devils.
${ }^{\text {Polllux. }}$. Declare, I pray thee, the words of Lactantius.
Caftor. Mark them; they are thus: The fame Devils are the gods of the Gentiles; but if any one will not believe thefe things of me, then let bim credit Homer, who joynetb the great Jupiter to the great Devils; and the other Pocts and Pbilofophers do call them Sometimes Gods, and formetimes Devils, whereof there is one true, and another falfe : for the moft woicked Spirits woben they are con--jured, do confefs themelves to be Devils; but wbere they are worThipped, they declare tbemselves to be Gods, that they may thruft men into errors, and drawo ibem from the woorßhip of the true God; -tbrough robom alone eternal deatb can be efcaped.

Pollux. It is expedient for me now to be more inquifitive in this difcourle, whether there be power given to the Devils to foretell things to come? concerning which thing hitherto I bave not been able to dart at the right mark; for this queftion feemeth fufficiently doubtful unto me.
Caftor. St. Augufine in his book De Natura Damozum, diffolveth this Gordonezss knot, and faith, That the damned Spirits, being filied full of all manner of impicty and woickednefs, do fonzetimes challenge to thewfelzes porer of forefeeing things to come; becaufe in the fenfe of their Aiery bodies, they bave a far more Arong and prevalent power of fore-knowing, then mex of eartbly bedies can bave; or kecaule of the incimparable fworftnefs of their aiery bodies, mobich wonderfully exceedetb not onely the celerity of men and woilde beafts, but alfo the fying of birds: by whicb mieans, they are able to declare things long before they comie to be known; which wee, by reajon of the eartbly fluwnefs of our Senfe, ceafe not to wopnder at and admire: or ticcaufe of the benefit of their continual life, they obtain this woonderful experience of things; which we cannot attain to, becaufe of the Shortmefs of. our amentaneous life, wibich is but as it were a bubble.

Poll. This laft affertion of S. Augufitine feemeth unto me to be more true then the reft, becaule the series of many years doth caufe great experience.

Caft. If any one fhall deny there opinions of Augufine, as erroneous, Damaficnus fetteth a greater witnefs of thefe things, without ail exception, before our eyes; who in his Poll. Why therefore do the devils fo willingly and of their own accord undertake Prophecies, and to anfwer Oracles? What benefit have they from hence?

Caft. Nothing, but that hereby they reek to get great eftimation, and covet to be counted worthy of admiration, and to be adored in fead of Gods.

Poll. We know that the devil is the father of lyes, Caftor: from whence we are pioully to believe, that thore things which he foretelleth, he extractert from his own lyes.

Poll. No man therefore will deny that they do fometimes foretel things to come.

Caft. No man, certainly: but for what caufe that is attained to, Cbryfoftom doth moft clearly teach, in theee words: It is granted, he faith, that fometimes the devil doth Jpeak truth, that be migbt commend bis own lying with rare verity: whereas, if be fhould never tell the truth, be conld deccive no man, neitber zould bis lying fuffice bins to tempt with. Thus far Cbryyoftome. Notwithttanding, if he underitand that he hath not grace granted unto him of himfelf to foretel the truth, he foretelleth things neverchelefs; but fo obfcurely, faith S. Poll. Thou haft faid, that the predictions of the devils are done in this manner, that they may gain authority to themfelves amongit the credulous people, and be worlhipped inftead of Gods: for what end do the evil Cpirits work Miracles?

Poll. But we read that Solumon, a fingular man with God, did make fuch Sigils.

Caft. We do read truly that Solomon did make them ; but it was at fuch time when he worlhipped Idols, and not when he was in the ftate of falvaion. Tertullian offe eth a morecertain Antidote then all the former, and exhorteth us, as $\mathcal{F} b$, the moft ftrong champion of God, to fight againft all the affaults of temptations: he admonifheth us to be clothed with the filken garment of Honefty, the purple-robe of Modefty and Shamefac'dnefs, and the cloak of Patience: and he perfwadeth us to meditate upon all thofe things which the devil doth devife and invent, to overthrow our integrity; that his faling may be proved the glory of our conftancy, and that we be willing conftantly to war againlt all machinations, which are permitted by God for this end. And the Prophet Feremiab teacheth the fame, in thele words: The Lord of bofts is the approver of the juft.
D. Maximus, in his book de cbaritate, commandeth us to binde and kill the devils. He faith we do then binde them, when by diligent obfervation of the Commandments of God, we do diminith and quafh thofe affections that d , boyl up in us: And we are faid to kill then, when we fo truly mortifie our lufts, that we cur him off from all occafions of accufing; faying with the Prophet, Depart, $O$ bomicide, the Lord the ftrong warrior is with me: thou Shalt fall, and fhalt be vatzquifhed from me for ever. In the Prophecie of IJaiab, and the Epiftles of St. Paul, we may finde the fame things; If a. 59. Eph. 6. and I Tbeff. 5 . which may be as a remedy againft vain. Ghofts, that they may be expelled.

Poll. For 2 remedy againft Ghofts? Doft thou conceive that a Ghoft is divers and different from a ppirit?

Caft. I know not truly what I may think hereof: for flowing in fo facious a sea of many opinions, I am foled in doubt, that I cannot eafily attain to a certain Port of judgement: for there are fome which do fuppofe that there Ghofts are devils, by reafon of the great fear aind terror wherewith they ragingly moleft men by night in their houfes; 2hd fome. times for their innate nature do do hurt. There are others that do believe there Spiritsare deceitulfantafies, deceivifg thore that are of evil belief; who by their fallacions vifions and imaginations do deceive and frighten the inhabitants in their houlfes: and do deny that they are Spirits indeed, becaufe the Spirits have a body without hands and fees wherefore they canhurt no man, hor make any tumult: being ignorant that the Angel (who alfo thath a body without hands and feet) did carry Habakkuk with his whole dinner, by the hair of his head, into Babylon, and afterwards brought him back again, and fet him in his own place; neither confidering that the Spirit of the Lord, alfo without a body, ratched up philip, and carried him to Azotus: that I may forbear to fpeak fpeak concerning a certain incorporeal Spirit, which did $n 0$ difquiet the houle of my Grandfather, that by the face of almoft thirty years he caufed it to be uninhabitable, unlefs it were when a Lamp was burning therein; neither did that then fufficiently quiet the fame: for going out of the houfe, they did fo moleft them with ftones from above in the freets, that they would caft out of their hands the hearts of Pinetrees, which they, ufed for torches. Concerning the Choft that haunted the houfe of Antbenodorus the Philofophers and the tumultuous firit of C. Caligula, there may more be fpoken: but thou haft underfood the relations of them already in the foregoing difcourfe. From all which, we may eafily convince the opinions of thofe, who deny that the Spirits can walk, or make any motion; but of how much truth we may hold the affertions of them, who do fuppofe that thefe tumultuous Spirits are neither devils, nor phantafms, but the fouls of the dead, now hearken unta.

Poll. Are chere they who are of that opiaion?
Caft. There are they who are of both opinions: for they do declare that thefe are the fouls of them who have departed from their bodies laden and clogged in their fins; which are therefore heard to be more or lefs turbulent in houfes, according as they have any fenfible ardent fpark of that fin more or lefs $;$ fo that except in the mean time they are expelled and driven away from thence, or expiated by Alms or Intercefions, they are compelled to a certain bound of liberty, wandering thereabouts in expectation of che laft Judgement.

Poll. Wherefore ?
Cast. Becaufe I believe that the fouls of them which lleep in Chrift do live with Chrift, and do not wander about the earth; and the fouls of them who are oppreffed and burdened with the grievous weight of their fins, fince they are the members of Satan, are bound with Satan in the chains of darknefs, expecting judgement in hell.

Poll. But Firmianus; a Writer of no mean judgement, thinketh the contrary, in his Book which he hath written de Divino premio.

142  Calt. How is that?

A Difcourfe

The opini- Poll. Thee are his words: Let not any man conceive that on of Fir- the fouls of the dead are judged immediately after death: for ibey. mianus. are all detained in one common cultody, until the time fhall come, woberein the Almighty fudge thall make examination and inquifition of their deeds. Then they wobo Shall be frund righecus, Shall receive the reward of immortality; but they wobofe fins and wickednefs fhall then bo detected, fhall not ari' e again, but fhall be in-1 colofod with the roicked in darknefs, and defined to eternal puniflot ments.

Cajt. St. Ausufine fublcribeth to Lactantios in his Enchiridiin, faying, Ibat the time which is interpofed between the death. of mankinde and tbe laftrefurreciion, containetb the fouls in fecret bidden receptacles, where every foul receivet b condigne reft or milery, for the good or evil robich be didin the body woinite be lived.

Poll. Neither doth St. Ambrofe difagree from this: in his: fecond book of Cain and Abel, he faith, That the foul is loofed from the body, and after the end of this life, is fusperaded to the ambiguous time of the laft judgement.

Calt. So alfo fome have declared, that the foul of Trajanus: Cafar did wander about ; but the foul of St. George was freed from fuch fuffrage.

Poll. Thon haft even now fpoke, and that truly, that fracious is the fea of various opinions concerning thefe Spirits 5 for fo indeed it is: but what Port thou toucheft at, A defire thee it may not feem troublefom to thee to tell me: for am not as yet facisfied of the certainty hereof by our difcourfe.

Caft. That which thou defireft, I conceive to be this: I hold that chefe tumultuous Spirits are meer images of Satan; which are not to be feared, neither is there any credit to be given to their anfwers: and are in no wife the fouls of the dead, which eicher live with Chrift, if they have done well; or elfe are bound in chains with Satan, if they have done evil.

Poll. It remaineth that we fift out this, Caftor: for it happeneth now fometimes, that my father appeareth to me in my fleep; perhaps that may alfo reem unto thee to be a Spirit.

Caft. It may feem fo: but I will not in any thing contradict thee beyond Reafon: of my felf I will adde nothing; but at lealtwire I will annihilate thy opinion with the affertions of St. Augufins.

Poll. What affertions are tho e?
Caft. In his in Book, which he intitulech De mortuorumz cura, he offereth them as a means, faying, Humane infirmity dotb So believe of bimelf, that when be jeeth any one that is dead, in bis gleep, be fuppofetb that be feeth the foul of that dead perfon; but whenbedreametb of any one thet is alive, be then is out of doubt, that neitber bis Soul nor bis body, but the fimilitude of the man appeared unto bim: As if they could be ignorant, thas the fouls of dead men do not appear unto them in dreams, but 01:ly the fimilitudes of the perfons deceafed. And he proveth both there to be done, by two examples which were at cliediolanus; whereof the firft he Cheweth to have been the image of a certain facher that was dead, who appeared to his fon? admonifhing him that he fhould not pay again a debt to ain unjuft Creditor, which the father had paid him before: for he faith the Cale was thus: The father had paid a debt to a certain Creditor, which after the death of the father, the Creditor endeavoared by force to recover the fame again of his fon, who was ignorant of the payment thereof: to whom the image of his father appeared when he was neeping, and Thewed him where the Writing was hid. Whereupon, the fon awakening from his fleep, fought for the Paper in the place he was directed, and found it, and thereby overthrew the malice of his deceifful Creditor. The fecond example is, whereby the fame St. Auguftine fheweth that the living do appear to the living, in their fleep: for he faith, That Eurologius the Rhetorician, profeffing the Rhetorick of cicero at Cartbage, he found a difficult and obfcure place that was not declared to him; fo that waking and fleeping he vexed himfelf by reafon of his ignorance : but, in a certain night, the image of Aurelius Auguftine appeared to him, and taught him in what manner the dark and difficult place was to be underftood.

Poll. Angufine doth therefore conclude, without doubt, that they are not fouls.

Caft. He doth fo conclude: and the greater to Arengthen fuch his judgement, he addeth, That if the fouls of the dead have any intereft or coumfel in the affairs of the living, lie undoubtedly knew, that his own pious mother did not defert him, not for one night, but when the was liying, followed him both by fea and land: neither did he at any time fuftain any anguifh of heart, but comforted his forrows. And that this may not feem too hard a fpeech, the prefident of Chrift teacheth, that they do not erre, who affirm that the good Angels, by the appointment of God, and Divine difpenfation, do fometimes come to, and vifit men, both living and fleeping, and rometimes to the place where fouls endure punifhment : notwithtanding, it is not unto all, but only unto thofe who have fo lived, that God hall judge them worthy of this mercy; or unto thole upon whom, without any'refpect unto their deferts, God will be pleafed to glorifie his unfpeakable mercy; that by the prayers of the living they may obtain pardon of their fins, and deliverance from the prifon of torments.

Poll. Ihave Cometimes read, that the fame St. Auguftine did write, that it is better for a manto doubt of fecret things, then to contend about things uncertain.

Caft. That is certainly true ; neither doth he declare himfelf to be an offence to thofe who doleave all there things to the unfearchable judgements of God, and labour not to finde out the fecrets thereof.

Whether the devils work Miracles really, or not.
poll. Becaufe I have eafily underfood thy anfwers hitherto, 1 will not defift till thou hailt fuily refolved me concerning this fubject. I defire therefore to know whether all Miracles which the devils perform, are done really, or imaginary phantafies.

the Writings of St. Augufine. For that great Prelate of the Chrittian Church, writeth, in the II Chapter of his book de Trinitate, That it is a very eafie thing for tbe woicked Spirits, tbrough the aiery fubfance of their bodies, to perform many tbings wobich feem woonderfol (to the fouls that are opprefled with earthly bodies) to be done. He alfo (aith, That earthly bodies may be fo qualified with art and exercife, that in publick. Theaters they may perform fuch poonderfult things, tbat thofe wobo never bave feen them woill not believe them, but that they pere done by the affitance of the devil and bis minifters, to make their bodies of fuch an aiery element, that the flefh ponders at. Of elfe, which is much, he faith alco, That they do contrive woith occult infpirations, forms, and fantafies of images, to delude bumane Senfe; wherewith, waking or fleeping, they may be deceivad. This far Auguftine. But, if thou wilt, I will produce atfo another witnefs without exception, Pollnx.
Poll. I would have thee tell me who that is.
Caft. Abbus Tritemius, in his third Queftion to St. Maxir mus Emilianus, which is Cpoken of before, faith thus: The devits, amond(t unfintibful people, do feem to raije up the dead ta life, and to fico miracles to curious men, that they might as it The devils weere fwallow tbem up with error inftead of miracles; and are cannotrealtotether pertinaciows and obftinate: but they cannot truly and ally raife reatly raife up the dead, but do variongly deceive the fenfos of the dead. , Shewing them feigned refemblances of the desd For it is certainly manifegt, that the devils can do all things, but only in a falfefimititude of boly miraches in trutb.
Poll. Some fay that the devils are obedient to wicked men, becaufe of the fimilitude of their malice. How, feemeth that to thee?

Caff. It feemeth to me, that they are obedient to evil men, but not to all men.

Poll. But to whom?

Caft. To thofecertainly with whom they have contractel and made compaits and covenants; as thore women which they call Pythonifts are accounted, who have vowed thems relves by promife unto him.

Poll. But although they are compelled to be fo ferviceable unto chem, yet is this fervice true or feigned?

Caft. It is feigned, certainly: for they are fublervient unto men of their own accord, and genuine wo $k$, that they may deceive them, and allure them to themfelves. Although we do not deny that their fervice is fometimes true, but only towards thof men, whofe faith in the Lord Jefus Chrift, by the nerit of his holinefs, hath caufed them to be acceptable, and friends unto him. And that Laçantius alro teftifies, in there words, in his fecond book De origine Er = roris, and I 6 Chapter. That the devils do fear the jult, that is, thofe chat worthip God, in whofe Name they are conjured to depart out of bodies, and with whofe words they are beaten as it were with fcourges: and chey do not only - confefs that they are devils, but do declare their names: neither can they lye unto the juft. ## ASTRONOMICAL GEOMANCY.

 Ecaufe Aftronomy is fo tranfeendent and fubtil an Artin it felf, that therein a man ought to have refpect unto fo many things before he can attain to true judgement thereby, becaufe the eye of the underftanding will not pierce unto the half thereof, and tew Doctors of our later time have been found fo experienced therein, that they know fufficiently how to judge thereby; Therefore I have compofed this work, which I will have to be named, Aftronomical Geomancy; wherein, I will fufficiently teach how to judge with lees labour and ftudy. For in this prefent Science it is not requifite to behold neither the Afcendent, nor the hour in a Table, as it is in Aftrology.

It is expedient therefore, to make four unequal lines, by the points cafually fet down; and to joyn togetber thofe points; and out of the points which are not joyned together, which do remain in the heads of the lines, (as it is done in Geomancy) extract one figure ; and the fign of the Zodiack that anfwereth to that figure, put for the Afcendent, for the words fake. If Acquifitio arife from the heads of thofe four Lines, let Aries be placed in the Afcendent; if Latitia, or the leffer Fortune put Taurus in the Afcendent; if Puer or Rubeus, place Gemini; if Albus, Cancer; if Via, Leo; if Conjunciio or the Dragons Head, Virgo; if Puella, Libra; if Amiffo or Irifti-tia, Scorpiojifthe Dragons Tail, Sagittary;if Populus, Capricorn; if Fortuna major, Aquary; if Carcer, then put Pifces for the Afcendent. Afterwards in the fecond Houfe, let that fign be placed which immediately fucceeds the other. In the third Honfe the thind Sign, and fo place the reit in order until you come unto the end of the Signes; and nake one fquare figure divided into twelve equal parts, and therein place the Signs in order, as it is in Aftrology, and as you may finde them in this figure: neither are we here to regard the * witneffes, or * Judge, or any other thing which belongs to $\mathrm{Ge}-$ omancy; but only the fixteen Figures, that by them we may have the tweive Signs, to which they agree; and obferve the manner of the Figure as it is here placed.

Afterwards it is requifite to make four Lines by courfe for every Planet, by points cafually pricked down; and likewife for the Dragons Head, as you have done for the Afcendent, and divide thofe points by twelve; and that which remaineth above tweive, or the tweifth it felf, if a greater number doth not remain, retain, and the Planer for which the projection was made, place in that Houre of which the fuperabounding number thall be ; that is, if there remain twelve, let the Planet be placed in the twelfth Houre; if ten, in the tenth Houle; if one, in the firt Houle; if two , in che fecond Houre; and to of the reft. And you ought alwayes to begin from the Sun, and afterwards from the Moon, than from Venus and CMercury, and from Saturn, Jupiter and Mars, and the Dragons Head and Dragons Tail; but you mut alwayes take heed, that you do not make a queftion in a rainy, cloudy, or a very windy feafon, or when cboulart angry, or thy minde bufied with many affairs; nor for tempters or deriders, neither that you may renew and reiterate the fame Queftion again under the fame figure or form; for that is error.

Oudtions of the firft: Hensfo.

IF you are defirous to know concerning the life of any man whether it flall be long or fhort, behold che Lord of the Afcendent, who if he be in ftrong Angles, it figuifies long life; in fuccedents, a middle age; and in cadent Houfes, a fhort life; and if he be in ftrong Angles, he fignifies greater years; if in Succedents, meaner years; it in Cadents, lefler years. The leffer years of Saturn are thirty, the meaner are forty four years, and the greater fifty eight. The leffer years of fupiter are twelve, the meaner years forty, and the greater accordingly are forty feven. The leffer years of Mars are fifteen, his means years forty, and the greater years forty feven. The leffer years of the Sun are nineteen, his mean years forty five, and his greater years eighty two. The lefler years of $V$ enus are eight, her mean years forty five, and her greater years eighty two. Mercury's leffer years are twenty, his means years forty nine, and his greater years eighty. The teffer years of the cMoon are fifteen, her mean years thirty mine, and her greater years a hundred and reven. And alfo look if chars or Saturn thall be in the firft Houre, and the Lord of the eighth with them; and if the Sun thall be in the eighth, the Querent fhall not live: likewife if the Lord of the Afcendent fhall happen to be void of courfe, and Mars be in the eighth, the Querent fhall not live; but if the Sun and the e Moon thall be in conjunction in the feventh Houre, and $V e$ ims in the fecond, he thall live well.

The accidents of the nativity are likewife to be confidered. If you finde Saturn or Mcrcury in the firft, * he is foolifh and talkative; if it be Mars and Mercury, he will not be fervile, but a wrangler and fooffer; if the Sun and Mercury, he will be a fpeaker of twith; and if the Sun be in Aries, he will apply himfelf to learn whatfoever he fhall hear; if Venus be in the feventh, he will be luxurious; and if Saturn, crsereury and $V$ enus be in their fall, he will be a Sodomite; if the $S$ un and Venus be in the tenth, and the cMoon in the firt, he will be very liberal; if Venus, Mercury and the Dragons Head be in the firft, he will be covecous; if the Moon and Mars be in the finft, he will be fubject to great bondage; and if Mars be Lord of the nativity, he will be rich, and an evil fpeaker, and litigious; and if the Sun be in the firt, he will be envious, having a fair body, not very lean, nor very fat; and if Venus be in the firf, he will be white and fair, if chercurg be in the firft, he will not beftable, butalwayes in motion; but if the Morn be found there, it denotes him to have a graceful face, breft and arms; if Saiurn be there, the man will be black and filthy; if fupiter, he will have a round face, a fair forehead, a ruddy complexion mixt with a little white. If you would know his office or art: if the Moon be in the feventh with Saturn, or in the fourth, or in the tenth, or in the firft, it is not good for him to build any houfe in a City, nor to build a thip, neither is it good for him to be a tiller of land, or eo drefs vines, or plant trees; but to be imployed about fome office belonging to the water, or concerning marriages, or to be a Polt or a Meffenger; neither let him apoly himelf mach to his mafter, becaule he fhall gain no repure from him: if the Moon be in the fifth or third, it will be good to him; in the fecond, eighth, fixth and twelfch, neither good nor evil.
Jupiter fignifies Bifhops, Prelates, Nobles, Porentates, Judges, Wire men, Merchants and ufurers.

Clars fignifies Warriors, Incendiaries, Homicides, Phyfitians, Barbers, Hangmen, Gold-Smiths, Cooks, furnaces, and all fieworks. And if Mars be in ftrong Signes, he will be poor and die in captivicy, unlefs he put himfelf in arms wich tome fouldier or varfal.

The Sun fignifieth Emperors, Kings, Princes, Nobles, Lords; and Judges.

Verius fignifies Queens and Lldies, Marriages, Conmunications, Friendinip, Apothecaries, Taylors, and fuch as make Ornaments for Playes, fellers of Cloth, Jeiters, Vintners, Players ar dice, Whores and Robbers.

Mercury fignifies Clerks, Philofophers, Alrologers, Geomerricians, Arichmeticians, Latin writers, and $\mathbf{P a i n t e r s}$, and all fubtil Arcilts, as well men as women, and their Arts.

Concerning the intention of the Qperent, look nato the Sign afcending, and his Lord; and where you finde the Lord of the Aicendent, he comes to inquire about fomething pertaining to that Houle; and if the Sur be Lord of the Arcendent, bis Queftion is concerning fear which he is in of fome man; if Venus, he enquireth of Arts, that he may know fome proper, Arts, or he enquireth concerning things belonging to women. If Mercary be Lord of the Accendent, he feeketh after fomething that is loft, or enquiresh concerning fome infirmity. If the Moon, he feekerh alfo for fomething loft, or enquireth about ficknefs, or fone difeare in his eyes. If $S a$ turis be Lord of the Afcendert,s he enquireth about fome ficknefs, or concerning a Prince; and keepeth filence, bue hath fome great grief or anguih in his heart. If fapiter ba Lord of the Afcendent, his Quettion is concerning fome infirmity, or reflitution, or for fome office which he defireth to have. If Mars, he enquireth for fome feat, of of an enemy, death, ficknefs, riches, or fubftance.

Queftions of the fecond House.

IF you would be informed concerning the fubtance of any man whether he thall be rich or not, behold the Lord of the fecond, which if he thall be with a good Planet, and a cood Planet likewife in the fecond, he thall be rich; bur if th: Lord of the fecond be joyned with evil Planets, and an evil Planet fhall be in the fecond, he fhall be poor.

If you would know whether you thall have acrain a thing lent, or not, look if there be an evil Planet in the fecond, and. difagreeing with his Lord; then he that detaineth the thing lent, will not willingly render back the fame: but if there be a good Planet in the fecond, and agreeing with his Lord, it thall eafily be recovered; and if the Lord of the fecond be exalted and be evil, or if an evil Planet be with him in the recond, or if the Lord of the recond te exalted, he which keepeth the thing depofited, wiil not willingly reftore the fame, but be fhall do it whether he will or not. And if an evil Planet be in thefecond, it's to be recovered: but if Mer. cury be in the fecond, fo that he be his Lord, and bringeth: contrariety, then it thall be recovered; and if a good Plamet. be in the fecond Houre, he fignifies recovery, although he be the Lord thereof.

Mark therefore the concord and difco:d of the Planets: the Moon and fupiter are friends, the Moon and Murs enemies; Mercury and the Sun are friends, Mercury and Venus enemies; Venus and. Fupiter are filends, Jupiter and the Mcon are enemies.

The Planets are faid to be friends, when they agree in one nature and quality, as Mars and the Sun, becaufe both their natures are hot and dry ; Venus and the Moon do agree in cold and moifture: or when Planets do agree in fubftance and nature, as Fupiter and Venus are friends: or when the Houfe of one is the exaltation of another, or on the contrary.

Queftions of the third House.

IF that you defire to know, how many brethren a man hath, fee the Lord of the third, and it is to be held, that to fo many Planets as he is joyned, fo many brethren the Querent hath;
hath; and the Mafculine Planets fignifie brethren, and the female Planers fifters; and note, That Saturn and e M1ars, the Sun, Fupiter, & the Diagons Head, are mafculine; but the Moon, Venus and the Dragons Tail are foeminine : but Mercury is promifcuous, fometimes mafculine, and fometimes fominize: he is mafculine when he is joyned to mafculine Planets, or when he is in a malculine quarter of the Zodiack; and he is fominine, when he is joyned to fomminine Planets, or when he is in a fominine quarter of the Zodiack:

> Questions of the fourt Houfe.

IF thou wouldit know whether it be good for thee to fay in any Land, City, Village, Territory, or Houre, or not, be hold the Lord of the Afcendent of the fourth, and of the feventh; and if the Lord of the four $h$ be in the feveath, and be good, and the Lords of the firlt and the tenth Houre be good, and with good Planets, then it is good for thee to continue in that place wherein thou art. And ifthe Lord of the feventh be with a good Planet, and the Lord of the fourth with an evil Planet, then it is not good for thee to abide there, becaufe if thou doft continue there, thou fhalt fuffer many loffes, and have evil reports raifed on thee in that Country.

But if thou wouldt know when any one that is abrent will return, behold the Lord of the Afcendent; and if you fiade him in any one of the four Angles, he will return in that year; and if he benot in an Angle, then fee how far he is diftant from the firlt Angle; for folong he will ftay, and fo many years as there be Houfes.

If you would be informed of the dearth or plenty of things, behold the ftrong Houfes, the Succedents and the Cadents; for the ftrong Houres fignifie dearth and fcarcity, the Succedents a moderate feafon, neither too dear, nor too cheap, the Cadents fignifie plenty and profitablenefs of things. Confider alfo the Planets, and their places, which if they be in frong Houfes, the things which are fignified by thofe Planets will be rare : and note, That Saturn doth fignifie fields, vines, and'inftruments to work in fields, and leather, and of fruits, corng aeorns, oak-apples, and pomegranates. yupiter.

The $S$ un hath fignification of wheat, and wine, purple colours, and cloth, and all things that are affimulated unto gold, horfes and birds, fuch as hawks and falcons. Venus doth fignifie fatnels and grapes, figs and dates, fifh and paftimes. Mercury hath barley, millet, grain, money, and quickfilver. The Moon fignifies oats, milk, cheere, fire and falt, cows, rams, hens, and filver, and accordingly plenty and fcarcity of them.
Oneftions of the fifth Houfe.

寿F you wonld know whether a woman be with Child, or whether the will have any children, or not, look if the L ord of the Afcendent be in the feventh, or the Lord of the fifth in the firft, or the Lord of the firtt in the fifth, or if the Lord of the fifth be in the feventh, or if the Lord of the feventh be in the fifth, or the Moon with them; or if good Planets be in the firt, or the fifth, or with the lord of the fifth, or $* \mathrm{R}$. in Angles, the is with child, or may have children; but if you finde none of them, but evil Planets in the fanse places, the neither is with child, neither will the have any children: and if the e be both good and evil Planers in the faid places, thein happiiy the may have children, but they will not live; but if Cancer, Scorpio or Tpices fhall be in the firt or fifth Houfe, the may have children; but if Leo and Virgo be there, the is not with child, neither thall the ever have any children; or if the Lord of the fifth fhall be in them Houfes.

And if you would know, within how many years the thall have children, look where you finde the Lord of the fifth; for in that year the thall have iffue; if he be in the firft, in the firft year; if in the fecond, in the fecond year; and fo you may number unto the twelfth Houfe. And if mean Signes be in the Afcendent, ghe that is with child hath twins in her wombe, which will live, if a good Planet be in the firft and if an evil Planet, they will die; and if there be one good and ahother evil, one fhall live, and another die; and if a mean Sign fhall be afcending, and Mars in that Sign, the mother fhall die, and not the child; if Saturn, both the mocher and child Ghall die; and if the Drazons Tail be there, it's poffible they will both die; but the infant fhall not efcape : and if the Dragons Tail be fo in the firft, and the tenth Houre fallein, the mother hall die; likewife if Mars and the Moon, or Mars and Saturn be in the firft, feventh or tenth, the mother fhall die.

Whether the party with child fhall mifcarry or not. Confider if a moveable Sign be afcending, becaufe if it be $\mathrm{fo}_{\mathrm{o}}$ the will mifcarry.

If you would know whether a woman fhall bring forth a man-child, or a woman-child; behold the Afcendent and his Lord, which if he be mafculine, and in a mafculine Sign, or in a malculine quarter of the Figure, it is a male-child; but if the Lord of the Afcendenthe feminine, and in a feminine Sign, orin a feminine quarter of the Circle, it will be a woman child; and fo you thall confider alfo of the Moor. Confider alfo if more of the Planets be in mafculine Signes, then it will be a male-child; and if many Planets be in feminine Signes, then it is a female-child.
And if you would know whether the child be legitimate or adulterate; fee if Saturn, Mars or the Dragons Tail be in the fifth, or with the Lord of the fifth ; becaufe if it be fo, it is adulterate; but if a good Planet fhall be there, it is legitimate: and if the Lord of the firt be in the fifth, or with his Lord, it is legitimate; and folikewife if the Lord of the fifth be found in the firlt, or with the Lord of the firt.

If you defire to know whether rumours be true or falfe, fee if you finde Saturn, CMars or the Dragons Tail, in the Aicendent; becaufe if they be fo, then the rumours are falfe; but if you finde the Sun, Jupiter or the Dragons Head there, then they are true; and if there be mafculine Planets in mafculine Signes, and feminine Planets in feminine Signes, then they are true; and if both good and evil Planets be there, then they are partly true and partly falfe; and if there be a good Sign with the Planet, it teftifies the truth; and if the Planet fall with an evilSign, then it is falce; likewife if Mercury be in the firft, the news is falle: but if the Moon be in the firlt in a feminine Sign, or joyned with the Lord of the Afcendent in a feminine Sign, then the rumours are true; alfo if good Planets be in the firt, fifth or ninth, and feminine Signes, they are true ; but if otherwife, they are not.

If you would know whether any one that is abfent will return, and when; fee the Lord of the Afcendent and the firt, which if you finde them cogether, for certain he will come, and is now beginning his Journey. Likewife if the Lord of the fifth be in the firlt, or with the Lord of the firft, and if he be in his fall, the meffenger is fick in his way; but if the Lord of the fifth be exalted, then he cometh joyfully. And if he be in a cadent Sign, he thall be grievoully aftiicted with ficknefs, or thall die.

If you would know if he bringeth that with him for which he went, or not, behold the Lord of the Ceventh ; which if he be good, he bringeth that which he fought for ; and if he be in his fall, or an evil Planet be there, he bringeth nothing with him. Queftions of the fixth Howe.
WHether the fick fhall recover his health, or die. If the Queftion be concerning his ficknefs, fee if Saturn, or Mars, or the Dragins Tail be in the firft, and whether his Lord be joyned with an evil Planet, then he fhall die foon. And if the Lord of thefirlt be good, and evil Planets be in the filft with his Lord, or likewife in the firft or the eighth, for certain. he will die: But if the Lord of the firt be in the eighth, or with the Lord of the eighth; or the Lord of the eighth in the firft, or with the Lord of the firft, there is doubt of his death. And if evil Planets do poffefs the Angles, evil and deftruction is threatned to the fick. But if good Planets thall be in the firft, fixth and eighth, and likewife in the Angles, and the Lord of the firt be from the eighth and his Lord, then the fick perfon fhall live and recover his health.

cines. If evil Planets be in the firft, the Phyfitian fhall profit him nothing; but they teftifie that this will be worfe for the difeafed : but the Fortunes do fignifie, that he fhali be profitable to him. And if evil Planets do occupy the tenth Houre, the fick perfon is the canfe; for they teftifie, that he himfelf is the caule of his own difeafe: but the Fortunes being there, fignifie the contrary. But if evil Planets be in the tenth Houfe, they change the condition of the fick out of one difeafe into another ; but the Fortunes being there, do deliver him without the help of Phyfitians or medicines. Alfo evil Planets being in the fourth, do teftifie, that the medicines do augment his grief; and the Fortunes being there, do mitigate and heal him.

If thou wouldat know if thou fhalt go unto the perfoin and heal him ; confider the place then : for if he fhall be with Saturn, Mars, or the Dragons Tail, or $* \mathrm{R}$ * with the Sun, go not untohim ; butif fupiter, Venur or the Dragons Head be in the firt or in the feventh, go, for it will be good: and if there be the Moon with a good Planet, go, and give him phyfick; but if the fhall be with an evil Planer, and efpecially in the feventh Houfe, then thou hale not go, becaure thou thalt profit him nothing: and if there be good Planets there, go and look diligently to him, where or in what members he fuffers; becaufe Aries hath the head, Taurus the neck, Cancer the breaft and lungs, Leo the heart and ftomack, Virgo the belly and inteftines, Libra the reins and loyns, Scorpio the fecret members, Sagittary the thighs, Capricorn the knees, Aquary the legs, and Pijces the feet.

And if Satarn, or Mars, or the Dragons Tail be in the fecond, it fhall not be found, nor be altogether loft. And if the Lord of the fecond be in the firlt, the thing that is loft fhall be found; but it fhall not be known from whence it came. If the Lord of the firft be in the fecond, it may be found after much labour. And if the Lord of the facond be in his fall, it wili never be found; but if he be exalted, it thall be found very well: but the feventh Houre theweth the thief.

But if you would know what it is that is follen, behold the Lord of the fecond; which if he be Saturn, it is lead, iron, a kettle, a trivet, a garment, or fome black thing, or leather. If he be 7 upiter, then it is fome white thing, as tin, filver, or mixt with white and yellow veins. The Sun fignifies gold and precious pearls. Mars fignifies things belonging to the fire. Venus fignifies things belonging to women, as gloves, rings, and fair ornaments. The Moon, beafts, fuch as horfes, mules, Ơc. perfumes and wars. Meroury fignifies money, books, Writings, pi&ures, or garments of divers colours.

If you would know how many thieves there were, fee the Lord of the fixth; which if he be in the fecond, or with che Lord of the fecond, there were many thieves; and if they be in the third, the brethren or kinfmen of the Querent have committed the theft.

If you would know whether the thief do yet remain in the Town: if they be in fuccedent Houfes, he is not gone far off; but if they be in cadent Houfes, he is far remote.

If you defire to know towards what Country the thief is fled, fee in what Sign the Lord of the feventh is; for if he be in Aries, he is in the middle of the Eaft part. If in Taurus, in the South towards the Eaft. If in Gemini, in the Weft towards the South. If in Cancer, full North. If in Leo, in the Eaft towards the North. If in Virgo, in the South towards the Weft. If in Libra, full Weft. If in Scorpio, in the North neer the Weft. If in Sagittary, in the Eaft nigh the North. If in Capricorn, full South. If in Aquary, in the Weft towards the North.

If you would know whecher the thief hath carried ail the things ftollen away with him, fee the Lord of the feventh and the eighth; and if the Lord of the feventh be in an Angle, he had a defire to carry away the fame with him, but could not. If the Lord of the eighth be in a mean Houfe, or in a cadent Houre, and the Lord of the fecond in a ftrong Houfe, he hath carryed the thefi wholly with him. And if the Lord of the feventh and the eighth be bothin cadent Houres, he neither carryed it away, nor hath it. See by the feventh who is his companion, and what is his gain.

If you would know the defcent or nobility of a man or woman, look unto the Lord of the feventh; which if you finde him in Angles, and the Lord of the firft in Succedents or Cadents, the woman is more noble then the man. But if the Lord of the Afcendent be in an Angle, and the Lord of the reventh in a fuccedent or cadent Houfe, the man is more noble then the woman. And after the fame manner thou maift judge of two companions, or of any other perfons whatfoever. And if the Lord of the feventh be in the ninth Houle, he will take a wife out of a furreign Country.

If you defire to know whether an intended marriage fhall take effect, or not, look to the Afcendent and his Lord, and the Moon, for the Querent; and the feventh Houre, and his Lord, for the woman. And if the Lord of the Afcendent or the Moon be joyned to the Lord of the feventh, or be in the feventh, the marriage will be effected; or if the Lord of the feventh be in the firlt, or with the Lord of the firft, it will eafily be brought to pais; and the woman is more defirous thereof, then the man.

If you would know whether thy wife or friend hath any other lover or not, look if Mars be in the feventh, fo that he be not in his own Houfe, for then fhe hath not any other lover. And if Saturn be there, fhe loveth another; but he lieth not with her. Andif the Dragons Tail be in the feventh, he lieth with her. And if upiter be there, fhe hardly con* taineth her felf chatte. But if the Moon be in the feventh, the hath had no lover as yet, but will have one, and will be common. But if the Sun or the Dragons Head be there, the is chafte. And after the fame manner may you judge in the $$ ninth $$ concerning friends or lovers.

If you would know which of them thall live longett, fee the Lord of the firft and of the feventh, which of them thall be in the ftronger and better place, or joyned to the ftrongeft Planets; and that perfon who is moft free and remote from the Lord of the eighth and his participation, to whom the Lord of his Houre anfwereth, thall live longeft.

If you defire to make a fociety or alliance, and would know whether it thall be brought to pafs or not, or what fhall happen thereupon, fee if there be good Planets in the feventh and the filf: and if fo, the fellowilicip will be made, and good will come thereof; and you may judge it to continue fo many years, months or dayes, as the Lord of the feventh hath fignification of.

If you would know when fuch fociety thall be, look what Planet is in the feventh; for if be be good, 'it Thall come

* 1 bidem forte. to pafs that fame year : or wedlock, R if the Queftion be thereof.

If you would know whether they will well agree, fee the firft and his I.ord, which is the fignifier of the Querent; and the feventh Houfe and his Lord, which is the Houre of companions, wives and concubines; which if they be concordant amongft themfelves, there will be peace and union between them, and they fhall profit: but if the Planets be in difcord, there will be ftrife between them, and the fociety will not profit.

If you would know which of them thall gain moft, fee the firft and his Lord, and the feventh and his Lord, and which of them ftandeth beft; or if they be evil, which of them falleth: and he that falleth fhall lofe, and he that is exalted fhall gain. Or otherwife, and which is better, fee the fecond and his Lord, and the eighth and his Lord; and in which Houre is the better Planet, or his Lord that thall be found in the better place, or joyned with the better Planets, he fhall be the greater gainer. The fecond Houfe and his Lord fignifies the gain of the Querent : and the eighth Houfe and his Lord fignifies the gain of hisfellow, o: his part : and if they be borh good, they fhall both gain ; and if both evil, they fhall both lofe: and if one be good and the other evil, he whofe fignificator is good, flall gain ; and he whofe is evil, thall lofe.

And if you would know if two fellows fhall love one another, look if the Lords of the firft and the feventh be friends and agreeing, then they will love one another'; but if they be enemies and difagree, then they will not.
If you defire to know who fhall overcome in any caufe, matter or controverfie, behold the Lords of the fiff and the feventh, which if they be in Angles, neither of them fhall overcome; and fee which of then is joyned with an evil Planet, becaufe he fhall overcome; and if the Planer be evil from them both, the vitor fhall kill the conquered; if one of them be Atrong, and the other weak, and the Planet which is in the trong Houfe do not fall, nor hath not an evil Planet with him; and if he which is weak be not in his own Houfe, nor in his exaltation, nor with a good Planet, he whofe Planet is in the ftrong Houfe, fhall overcome; likewife he whofe fignificator is in a mean Houfe, thall have great fear and doubt in his heart, becaufe fometimes he fhall hope to conquer, and otherwhiles fear to be overcome. And note, that in a Queftion concerning war and kingdom, it is faid that there is more power and efficacie, or fortitude in the exaltation of a Planet, then in his Houfe; but in all other Queftions the contrary.

If you would te informed concerning any one being, that is gone to any fight, whether he fhatl return fafe, fee the Lord of the Afcendent; if he be good, that is, with good Planets, and a good Planet in the firf, he will return fafe; but if the Sun be with the Lord of the firft, in any part of the Queftion, let him not go, becaufe the Sun burneth him. And if the Lord of the feventh be with a good Planet, and the Lord of the firft with a good Planet likewife, he fhall have fome impediment in the way; but he will not die. And if an evil Planet be with the Lord of the firft, and a good Planet in the firft, if he goeth he thall fuffer great damage, but not death; neverthelefís he may be grievoufly wounded. And if Saturn be in the firft, or with the Lord of the firft, let him not go; becaufe fome impediment will happen unto him by fome man that he will meet. And if there be;an evil Planet with the Lord of the firft, or Saturn be in the firft, or with the Lord of the firf, he will be wounded with wood or with a fone. If Mars and the Dragons Tail be in the firft, or with the Lord of the firft ; or if there evil Planets in the firt, or with the 1 ord of the firtt, he will fuffer wounds or death. See likewife if there be an evil Planet in the eighth, becaufe then death is to be feared. And if the Sun be with the Lord of the feventh, or in the eighth, it fignifies that it is ill to go. The like judgement is of the feventh and the tenth.

And if a Queftion be propofed concerning the event of War, fee the feventh and the firft, and their Lords: for the firt Houfe and his Lord fignifies the Querent; and the feventh Houfe and his Lord the adverfary. So that if there be good Planets in the firft, and evil in the feventh; and if the Lord of the firft and feventh be evil, the Querent fhall overcome: but if there be an evil Planet with the Lord of the firft, and an evil Planet in the firft, and tie Lord of thefeventh good, or $* \mathrm{R} *$ in the feventh, the Querent fhall be overcome, or taken, or flain. And if the Lords of them both be in the firf, and there be good Planets from the part of the firft Houre, unto the end of the Houfe which is the middle of the Queftion; and if evil Planets do poffers the other half of the Queftion, that is to fay, from the feventh unto the end of the twelfth houfe, theadverfary fhall overcome. But if both the Lords fhall be in the Afcemdent, and if they be good from the part of the firft, and evil from the part of the feventh, they fhall both fuffer great lofs; but the Querent thall have the better in the end. But if the Lord of the Afcendent be in the feventh, or in his Cueftion, it figni-

And if the Lord of the Afcendent be in the eighth, or with the Lord of the eighth; or the Lord of the eighth in the firft, or with the Lord of the firft, it fignifies the death of the Querent. And if the Lord of the feventh be in the fecond, or with his Lord ; or the Lord of the fecond in the feventh, or with the Lord of the reventh, it fignifies the death of the enemy.

If you would know whether War fhall continue long or not, if mean or meanly; if the Lords of the fift and the feventh do agree, the parties thall be pacified after the War.
If thou wouldf depart from the place wherein thou art, and remove thy felf ro fome other place ; and if thou wouldft know whether it be better for thee to ftay or go: or concerning two bufineffes, if thou defireft to know which of them is moft expedient for thee to undertake, confider the Lords of the firt and the fecond, for thofe places to which thou wouldit go, the place whereinthou art, and the gain which thou getteft there; and the feventh and the eighth, and their Lords, for the place to which thou wouldit go, and the gain which thou may it get there: and thofe places chufe, whofe Lords are the better, or joyned to the better Planets. Or otherwife : behold the Lord of the Afcendent, and the Moon; which if they be reparated from evil Planets, and joyned to good and fortunate Planets, it is better for thee to go from the place where thou art, then to ftay there, and to do what buliness foever thou haft in thy minde. And if the Lord of the Afcendent and the Moon be feparated from the Fortunes, and joyned to evil Planets, then it is not good for thee to remove thy felf, nor to do thy bufinels. Or thus: See the Moon; and if the Planet from which The is feparated be better then that to whom the is joyned, do not remove: and if the Planet which the is joyned to, be better then that from which the is feparated, then go.

If Saturn be in the ninth, or with his Lord, go fecurely. And if a good Planet bein the ninth, or with the Lord of the ninth, the way is good and fecure. And if Mars be in the ninth, thoumayft not go: for thou wilt meet with mortal enemies in the way. Name or Character. Fol there is no fower either in heaven or in earth, or hell, which duth not defcend from God; and without his jes milfoin, they can neisther give or draw forth into any. action, any thing they have.

Apbor, 9.
That is the chiefeft wifdom, which is from God; and next, that which is in ficitual creatures; afterwards, in corporal creatures; fourthly, in Nature, and natural things. The Spirits that are apoftate, and referved, to she laft judgement, do follow there, after a long interval. Sixthly, the miniters of punifhments in hell, and the obedient unto God. Seventhly, the Pigmies do not poffers the loweft place, and they who inhabit in elements, and elementary things. It is convenient therefore to know and difcern all differences of the wifdom of the Creator and the Creacures, that it may be certainly manifeft unto us, what. we ought to affume to our ufe of every thing, and that we may know in truth how and: is what manner that may be done. For truly every creature is ordained for fome proficable end to humane patire, and for the Cervice thereof; as the holy Scriptures, Reafon, and Experience, do teflifir.

Do this, and thou Chalt live, which the holy Books have taught thee.

Aphor. ix.

A number of Four is Pytbagorical, and the firt Quadrate; therefore here let us place the foundation of all wirdom, after the wirdo n of God revealed in the holy Scriptures, and to the Confiderations propofed in Nature.

Appoint therefore to him who folely dependeth upori God, the wifdom of every creature to ferve and obey him, nolens volezs, willing or unwilling. And in this, the Omnipotency of God fhinech forth. It coanfleth therefore in this, that we will difeern the creatures which ferve us, frons thofe that are univilling; and that we may learn how to accommodate the widdom and offices of every creature unto our felves. This Art is not delivered, bur divinely. U ito whom God will, he revealech his fecrets; but to whom he will not beftow any thing out of his treafuries, that perfon flall attain to nothing without the will of God.

Therefore we ought truly to defire tho avounartutho intirikh from God alone, which will mercifully impart thefe things unto us. For he who hath givenus his Son, and commandedus to pray for his hrly Spirit, How much more will he fubject unto us the whole creature, and things vifible and invifible? wbatjoever ye ask, ye 乃ball receive. Beware that ye do not abufe the gifts of God, and all things thall work together unto you for your falvation. And before all chings, be watchful in this, That your names be written in Heaven: this is more light, That the fpirits be obedient unto you, as Chriit admonitheth.

Tbe moft general Precepts of this Secret.

1. Every Governour acteth with all, his Spirits, either naturally, to wit, alwayes after the fame manner; or otherwife of their own free-will, if God hinder them not.
2. Every Governour is able to do all things which are done naturally in a long time, out of matter before prepared; and alfo to do them fuddenly, out of matter not before prepared. As Och, the Prince of Solar things, prepareth gold in the mountains in a long time; in a leis time, by the Chymical Art; and Magically, in a moment.
3. The true and divine Magician may ufe all the creatures of God, and offices of the Governours of the world, at his own will, for that the Governours of the world are obedient unto them, and come when they are called, and do exe-

4. In all the elements there are the feven Governours with their hofts, who do move with the equal motion of the firmament; and the inferiours do alwayes depend upon the fuperiours, as it is taught in Philofophy.
5. A man that is a true Magician, is brought forth a Magician from his mothers womb: others, who do give themfelves to this office, are unhappy. This is that which Fobn the Baptift (peaketh of: No man can do any tbing of bimelf, except it be given him from above.
6. Every Charader given from a Spirit, for what caufe foever, hath his efficacy in this bufinefs, for which it is given, in the time prefixed: But it is to be ufed the fame day and Planetary hour wherein it is given.
7. God liveth, and thy foul liveth : keep thy Covenant, and thou haft whatfoever the Spirit fhall reveal unto thee in God, becaufe all things thall be done which the Spirit promifeth unto thee.

There are other names of the Olyntick firits delivered by others; but they only are effectual, which are delivered to any one, by the Spirit the revealer, vifible or invifible: and they are delivered to every one as they are predeftinated: therefore they are called Conftellations; and they feldom have any efficacy above 40 years. Therefore it is molt fafe for the young praaifers of Art, that they work by the offices of the Spirits alone, without their names; and if they are pre-ordained to attain the Art of Magick, the other parts of the Are will offer themfelves unto them of their own accord.

There is another way which is more common, that fecrets may be revealed unto thee alio, when thou art unwitting thereof; either by God, or by Spirits which have fecrets in their power; or by dreame, or by ftrong imaginations and impreffions, or by the conttellation of a nativity by celeftial knowledge. After this manner are made heroick men, fuch as there are very many, and all learned men in the world, Plato, Ariffotle, Hippocrates, Galoen, Euclide, Archisnedes, Hermes Trifmeg iftus the facher of fecrets, with The-- phraffus Paracelf wes all which men had in themelves all the vertues of fecrers. Hicherto alfo are referred, Homer, Hefiod, Orpheus, Pythagoras ; but thefe had not fuch gifts of fecrets as the former. Make a Circle with a center A , which is B. C. D. E. At the Ealt let there be B. C. a fquare. At the North, C. D. At the weft, D. E. And ac the South, E. D, Divide the feveral quadrants into feven parts, that there may be in the whole 28 parts : and let them be again divided into four parts, that there may be in 2 parts of the Circle: and fo many are the true fecrets to be revealed. And this Circle in this maner divided, is the feal of the fecrets of the world, which chey draw from the onely center $A$, that is, from the invifible God, unto the whole creature. The Prince of the Oriental fecrets is refident in the middle, and hath three Nobles on either fide, every one whereof hath four under him, and the Prince himfelf hath four appercaining unto him. And in this manner the other princes and nobles have their quadrants of fecrets, with their four fecrets. Bat the Oriental fecres is the Audy of all wirdome; The Weft of ftrength; The Souch, of tillage; The North, of more rigid life : So that the Eattern fecrets are commended to be the belt; the Meridian to be mean ; and the Ealt and Northto be leffer. The ufe of this feal of fecrets is, that thereby thou maift know whence the Spirits or Angels are produced, which may teach the fecrers delivered unto them from God. But they have names taken from their offices and powers according to the gift which God hath feverally diftributed to every one of them. This faith furmounteth all feals, and bringeth them inco fubjection to the will of man. The Characteriftical maner of calling Angels fucceedeth this faith, which dependech onely on divine revelation; But withour the faid faich preceding it, it liech in oblcurity. Neverthelefs, if any one will ufe them for a memorial, and no ocherwife, and as a thing fimply created by God to this purpofe, to which fuch a firituall power or effence is bound; he may ufe them without any offence unto God. But let him beware, left that he fall into idolatry, and the fnares of the devil, who with his cunning forceries, eafly deceiveth the unwary. And he is not taken but onely by the finger of God, and is appointed to the fervice of man; fo that they unwillingly ferve the godly; but not without temptations and tribulations, becaufe the commandment hath it, That he fhall bruife the heel of Chrift, the feed of the woman. We are therefore to exercife our felves abour fpiritual things, with fear and trembling, and with great reverence towards God, and to be converfant in fpiritual effences with gravity and juftice. As our fady of Mayick proceedeth in order from general Rales premired, let us now come to a particular explication thereof. Spirits either are divine minifters of the word, and of the Church, and the members thereof; or elle they ate fervient to the Creatures in corporal things, partly for the falvation of the foul and body, and partly for its deltruction. And there is nothing done, whether good or evil, without a certain and determinate order and government. He that feeketh after a goodend, let him follow it; and he that defires an evil end, purfue that alfo, and that earneftly, from divine punifhment, and turning away from the divine will. Therefore let every one compare his ends with the word of God, and as a touchfone that will judge tetween good and evil ; and let him propofe unto himfelf what is to be avoided ${ }_{2}$ and what is to be fought after; and that which he conftitateth and determineth to himfelf, let him follow diligently, not procraftinating or delaying, uncil he altain to his appointed bound.

Aphor. 38.

Therefore Magick is twofold in its firlt divifion ; the one is of God, which he beltoweth on the creatures of light ; the other 2lfo is of God, but it is the gift which he giveth unto the creatures of darknefs: and this is alfo two-fold : the one is to a good end; as wher the Princes of darknels are compelled to do good unto the creatures; God enforing them; the other is for an evilends when Cod permitteth fuch to purith evil perfons, that magically they are deceived to deftruction; or, allo he commandeth fuch to be calt out into deltruction.

The fecond divifion of Magick is, that it bringeth to pals fonse works with vifble inftuments, through vifible things; and it effecteth orher works with invifible inftruments by invigble things; andit actert other thinge, afwel with mix. ed meanss as intruments and effects.

The third divifion is, There are fome things which are brought to pars by invocation of Codalone : this is partly Prophetical, and Philofophical, and partly as it were Theophraftical.

Other things there are, which by reafon of the ignorance of the true God, are done with the Princes of Spirits, that his defires may be fulfilled; fuch is the work of the Mercurialiftsa

The fourch divifion is, That fome exercife their Magick with the good Angels in Alead of God, as it were defcending down from the molt high God:fuct was the Macick of Baalim. - Another Magick is, that which exerciferh cheir actions with the chief of the evil Spirits; fuch were they who wrought by the minor Gods of the heathens.

The fifth divifion is, That fomedo act with Spitits openly, and fice to face; which is given to few : others do work by dreams and other fignes; which the ancients took from their auguries and factifices.

The fixth divilion is, That fome work by immorral creatures, ochers by mortal creatures, as Nymphs, Satyrs, and fuch-like inhabitants of other elements, Pigmies, orn $c$.

Thefeventh divifion is, That the Spirits do ferve fome of their own accord, without art; others they will fearce attend, being called by art.

Among thefe fpecies of Magick, that is the moft excellent of all, which dependeth upon God alone. The fecond, Them whom the Spirits do ferve faithfully of their own accord. The third is, that which is the property of Chritians, which dependeth on the power of Chrift which he hath in heaven and earth.

Aphor. 39.  There is a Seven-fold preparatiox to learn the cragick aArto

The firt is, to meditate day and night how to attain to the true knowledge of God, both by his word revealed from the foundation of the world; as alio by the feal of the creation, and of the creatures; and by the wonderful effects which the vifible and invifible creatures of God do fhew forch.
Secondly, it is requifite, that a man đefcend downinto himfelf, and chiefly fudy to know himfelf; what morral part he hath in him, and what immortal; and what part is proper to himeelf, and whar diverie.

Thirdly, That he learn by the immortal part of himfelf, to worfip, love and fear the eternal God, and to adore him in Spirit and Truth; and with his mortal part, to do thore things which he knoweth to be acceptable co God, and profitable to his neighbours.

There are the three firft and chiefeft precepts of Magick, wherewith let every one prepare himfelf that covets to obtain true Magick or divine wirdome, that he may be accounted worthy thereof, and one to whom the Angelical creatures willingly do fervice, not occultly onely, but alfo manifeftly, and as it were face to face.

Fourthly, Whereas every man is vigilant to fee to what kinde of life he fhall be called from his mothers womb, that every one may know whether he be born to Magick, and to what feecies thereofswhich every one raay perceive eafily that

In the fifth place we are to take care, that we underftand when the Spirits are affitting us, in undertaking the greatelt rufinefs ; and he that underfands this, it is manifelt, trathe fhill be made a Magician of the ordination of God; that is, fuch a perfon who ufeth the miniltery of the Spirits to bring excellent things to pafs. Here, as for the moft part, they fin either through negligence, ignorance, or conrempr, or by too much fupertition; they offend allo by ingratitude towards God, whereby many famous men have afrerwards drawn upon themfelves deftruction : they fin alfoty raftnefs and obftinacy; and alfo when they do not ufe their gifts for that honour of God which is required, and do prefer

Sixthly, The Magician had need of faith and taciturnity, efpecially, that he difclole nofecret which the Spirit hath forbid him, as he commanded Daniel to fell fome thinge, that is, not to declare them in publick; fo as it was not lawfull for Paul to freak openly of all things which he faw in a ilion. No man will believe how much is contained in this one precept.

Seventhly, In him that would be a Magician, there is requised the greateft juftice, that he undertake nothing that is ungodly, wicked or unjuf, nor to let it once come in his minde; and fo he fhall be divinely defended from all evil.

Aphor. 40.

When the Magician determineth with himfelf to do any incorporeal thing, either with any exteriour or interiour fenfe, then let him govern himfelf according to thefe feven fubiequent laws, to accomplifh his Magicat end.

The firlt Law is ibis. That he know that fuch a Spirit is ordained unto him from God; and lee him mecitate thar God is the beholder of all his thoughts and acions; therefore let him direct all the courfe of his life according to the rule prefcribed in the word of God.

Secondly,

Arbatel of Magick.

Secondly, Alwaies pray with David, Take not thy boly Spirit from me; and ftreng then me with thy fres Spirit ; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us fromevil: I bef fech thee, $O$ beaverly Father, do not give power unto any lying Spirit, as thow didft over Ahab that he peribed; but keep me in thy truth. Amen.
Thirdy , Le: him accultome himifelf to try the Spitits, as the Scripture adnonifheth; for grapes cannot be gathered of thorns: let us try all things, and hold falt that which is good and laudable, that we may avoid every thing that is repuignant to the divine power.

The fourth is, To be remore and clear from all manner of fuperfition; for this is fuperffition, to attribute divinity in this place to things, wherein there is nothing ar all divine; or to chufe or frame to our felves, to worhip God with fome kinde of worfhip which he hath not commanded : fuch are the Magical ceremonies of Satan, whereby he impudently offerech himfelf to be worfhipped as God.
$\cdots$ The fifih thing to le efchewed, is all wor hip of Idols, which bindet' any divine power to idols or ocher things of their own proper motion, where they are not placed by the Creator, or ty the order of Nature : which chings many falle and wicked Magicians faign*.
Sixchly, All the deceitful imications and affections of the devil are alfo to be avoided, whereby he imitaterh the power of the creation and of the Creator, chat he may fo produce things with a word, that they may not be what they are. Which belongeth onely to the omniporency of God, and is not communicable to the creature.
Seventhly, Let us cleave falt to the gifts of God, and of his holy Spirit, th: we may know them, and diligencly embrace them with our whole heart, and all our Atrength.

Aphor 4I.

We come now to the nine latt Aphorifmes of this whole Tome; wherewith we will, the divine mercy affifting us ${ }_{2}$ conclude this whole Ma gical IJagoge.

Therefore in the firtt. place it is ro be obferved, what we. undertand bv Magician in this work.

Him

Arbatel of Magick.

Him then we count to be a Magician, to whom by the grace of God, the firitual effences do ferve to manifeft the knowledge of the whole univerfe, and of the fecrets of Nature contained therein, whether they are vifible or invifible. This defcription of a Magician plainly appeareth, and is univerfal.

An evil Magician is he, whom by the divine permiffion the evil Spirits do ferve, to his temporal and ecernal deftruction and perdition, to deceive men, and draw them away from God; fuch was Simon Magus, of whom mention is made in the ACts of the eApostles, and in Clemens; whomSt. Perer commanded tobe thrown down upon the earth, whenas he had commanded himfelf, as it were a God, to be raifed up into the air by the unclean Spirits.

Unto thisorder are alfo to be referred all thofe who are noted in the two Tables of the Law; and are fer forth with their evil deeds.

The fubdivifions and fpecies of both kindes of Magick, we will note in the Tomes following. In this place it Mall fuf fice, that we diftinguinh the Sciences, which is good, and which is evil: Whereas man fought to obrain them both at firt, to his own ruine and deftruction, as Mofes and Hermes do demonitrate.

Aphor 42.

Secondly, we are toknow, That a Magician is a perfon predeftinated to this work from his mothers worbe; neither let himaffume any fuch great things to himielf, unless he be called divinely by grace hereunto, for fome good end; to a bad end is, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, It muft be that offences will come; but wo be to that man through whom they come. Therefore, as we have before oftentimes admonifhed, With fear and trembling we muft live in this world.

Notwithftanding I will not deny, but that fome men may with fudy and diligence obtain fome feccies of both kindes of Magick, if it may be admitted. But he Shall never afpire to the highelt kindes thereof; yet if he coyet to afail them, he Thmil doubtlefs oftend both in foul and body, Such are they, who by the operations of falle Magicians, are fometimes carried to Mount Horeb, or in fome wilderners, or defarts; or they are maimed in fome member, or are fimply torn in pieces, or are deprived of their underftanding; even as many fuch things happen by the ufe thereof where men are forfaken by God, and delivered to the power of Satan.

Aphar. " 43.

The Lord liveth, and the works of God do live in him by his appoinemenr, whereby he willeth them to be; for he will have them to ufe their liberty in obedience to his commands, or difobedience thereof. To the obedient, he hath propofed their rewards; to the difobedient he hath propounded their deferved punifhment. Therefore thefe Spirits of their freewill, through their pride and concempt of the Son of God, have revolted from God their Creator, and are referved unto the day of wrath ; and there is left in them a very grear power in the creation; but notwichftanding it is limited, and they are confined to their bounds with the bridle of God. Therefore the Magician of God, which fignifiesa wife man of God, or one informed of God, is led forth by the hand of God unto all everlafing good, boch mean things, and alro the chiefeft corporal things.
Great is the power of Satan, by reaion of the great fins of men. Therefore alfo the Magicians of Satan do perform great things, and greater then any man would beleve : although they do fubfit in their own limits, neverthelefs they are above all humane apprehienfioh, as to the corporal and cranfitory things of this life; which many ancient Hittories, and daily Examples do teltifie. Borh kindes of Magick are different one from the other in their ends: the one leaderh to eternal good, and ufeth remporal things with thankigiving; the other is a little follicitous about eternal things ; but wholly exercifeth himfelf about corporal things, that he may freely enjoy all his lults and delights in conrempt of God and his an. ger.

Aphor. $44^{\circ}$

The paffage from the common life of man unto a Magical Kife, is no other but a fleep from that life, and an awaking to this life; for thofe things which happen to ignorant and unwife men in their common life, the fame things happen to the willing and knowing Magician.

The Magician undertiandeth when the minde doth meditate of himfelf; he deliberatech, reafoneth, conltiturech and determineth what is to be done; he oblerveth when his cogitations do proceed from a divine feparate effence, and he proveth of what order that divine feparate effence is.

But the man that is ignorant of Magick, is carried to and fro, as it were in war with his affections; he knoweth not when they iffue our of his own minde, or are impreffed by the affiting effence; and he knoweth not how to overthrow the counfels of his enemies by the word of Cod, or to keep himfelf from the fnares and deceits of the tempter.

Aphor. 45.

The greateft precept of Magick is, to know what every man ought to receive for his ufe from the affifting Spirit ; and what to refule: which he may learn of the Pfalmift, faying, wherewith fhall a young man cleanfe his way? in keeping thy word, Oh Lord. To keep the word of God, fo that the evil one fnatch it not out of the heart, is the cheifert precept of wifdom. It is lawful to admit of, and exercife other fuggeftions which are not contrary to the glory of God, and charity towards our neighbours, not inquiring from what Spirit fuch fuggeftions proceed : But we ought to take heed, that we are not too much bufied about unneceffary things, according to the admonition of Chrilt; Martha, Martha, thou art tronbled about many things; but Mary bath ohofen the better part, which fhall

There is nothing fo much beconeth a man, as conftancy in his words and deeds, and when the like rejoyceth in his like; there are none more happy then fuch, becaufe the holy Angels are converfant about fuch, and poffers che cultody of them: on the concrary, men that are unconftant are lighter then nothing, and rotten leaves. We chufe the 46 Aphorifme from thefe. Even as every one governeth himfelf, fo he allurech unto himfelf Spirits of his nature and condition ; but one very truely advifeth, that no man fhould carry himfelf beyond his own calling, left that he draw unto himfelf fome malignant Spirit from the uttermolt parts of the earth, by whom either he fhall be infatuated and deceived, or brought to final deffruction. This precept appearech moft plainly : for Midas, when he would convert all things into gold, drew up fuch a Spirit unto himfelf, which was able to perform this ; and being deceived by him, he had been brought to death by famine, if his foolifhnefs had not been corrected by the mercy of God. The fame thing happened to a certain woman about Fanck ford at Odera, in our times, who would fcrape together and devour mony of any thing. Would that men would diligently weigh this precept, and not account the Hiflories of Midas, and the like, for fables; they would be much more diligent in moderating their thoughts and affections, neither would they be fo perperually vexed with the Spirits of the golden mountains of $\mathscr{U}$ topia. Therefore we ought molt diligencly to oblerve, that finch prefumptions fhould be caft out of the mind, by the word, while they are new; neither let them have any habit in the idle minde, that is empry of the divine word.

Abhor. 47.

He that is faithfully converfant in his vocation, shall have aldo the Spirits conftant companions of his defires, who will fucceffively fupply him in all things. But if he have any knowledge in Magick, they will not be unwilling to thew him, and familiarly to converfe with him, and to ferve him in thole feveral minifteries, unto which they are addicted; the good Spirits in good things, unto falvation; the evil Spirits in every evilthing, to deftruction. Examples are not wanting in the Hiltories of the whole World ; and do daily happen in the world. Theodosius before the victory of Arbogafius, is an example of the good; Brute before he was lain, was an example of the evil Spirits, when he was perfected of the Spirit of Cafar, and expofed to punifhment, that he flew himfelf, who had lain his own Father, and the Father of his Country.

\text { ephor. } 48

All Magick is a revelation of Spirits of that kind, of which fort the Magick is; fo that the nine Muses are called, in Hefod, the ninth Magick, as he manifelly terrifies of himself in Theogony. In Homer, the genius of Ulysses in PFigiogam gid. Hermes, the Spirits of the more fublime parts of the mince. God revealed himfelf to Moses in the bush. The three wife men who came to reek Christ at Jerusalem, the Angel of the Lord was their leader. The Angels of the Lord directed Daniel. Therefore there is nothing whereof any onemay glory; For it is not ito him that willeth, nor unto bim that runneth; but to whom God will have mercy, or of rome otherfpiritual fare. From hence fpringeth all Magick, and thither again it will revolve, whether it be good or evil. In this manner Tages the firft teacher of the Magick of the Roomanes, gulled out of the earth. Diana of the Ephefians Shewed her worfhip, as if it had been rent from heaven. So alio Apollo. And all the Religion of the Heathens is taken from the fame Spirits; neither are the opinions of the Saddaces, humane inventions.

Aphor. 49.

The conclufion therefore of this IJagoge is the fame which we have above already fooken of, That even as there is one God, from whence is all good; and one fin, to wit, difobedience againlt the will of the commanding God, from whence comes all evil; fo that the fear of God is the beginning of all wiidom, and the profit of all Magick; for obedience to the will of God, followech the fear of God; and after this, do follow the prefence of God and of the holy Spirit, and the miniftery of the holy Angels, and all good things out of the inexhaulible treafures of God.
But unprofitable and damnable Magick arifeth from this; where we lofe the fear of God out of our hearts, and fuffer fin toteign in us, there the Prince of this world, the God of this world beginneth, and fetteth up his kingdon in fead of holy things, in fuch as he finderh profitable for his kingdom: there, even as the fider takech the flye which falleth into his web, fo Saran fpreadeth abroad his nets, and takerh man with the fnares of coverounnefs, until he fucketh him, and draweth himto eternal fire: thefe he cherifheth and advanceth on high, that their fall may be the greatet.

Courteous Reader, apply thy eyes and minde to the facted and profane Hitories, & to chofe things which thou feeft daily to be done in the world, and thou fhalt finde all things full of My gick, according to a two-fold Science, good and evil ; which that they may be the better dificerned, we will put here their divifion and fubdivifion, for the conclufion of there IJagoges ; wherein every one may contemplate, what is to be followed, and which to be avoided, and how far it is to be laboured for by every one, to a competent end of life and living.d
